

The Enemy has a Plan and Man has None

by Jeremy James

The Enemy has a plan, while most of mankind don't even know they have an enemy.

Perhaps you know the plan, or parts of it, but the number who don't know anything is horrifyingly large.

In this 'graphical review' we will take a closer look at the 'New World Order' and the cabal behind it. For many it may come as a great surprise to learn that much of what these schemers are doing is out in the open. But since it is all labelled and packaged for our 'welfare', we hardly pause to think that something more sinister is afoot.

For Christians who read and believe God's Word, none of this should come as a surprise. Satan never left the stage. He's as dangerous today as he was at any time in the past two thousand years. The big difference today is the availability of highly advanced technology. A child wielding a stick may pose a threat, but a child with a machine gun is a greater threat by far – by many orders of magnitude!

Today, Satan has a machine gun.

If your friends and relations are slow to acknowledge the threat we are facing, then a document like this may help them see that the tide of human decency has gone way out and a huge tsunami is rolling toward our shores.

- 1. Don't panic. There are millions just like you!
- 2. By virtue of being human you are deemed a health hazard and a threat to the planet.

- 3. The island is controlled by Christ-hating Marxists and Freemasons, so anything you own could be taken from you.

"As an agent for The City of London I help to keep track of nearly 8 billion electronic identities. Every one is a debt to the Crown and we always collect. But it's cumbersome. The Great Reset will make it all a whole lot simpler. You won't own anything because everything will be ours.
