

Wee Timorous Beastie: Warning Signs of End Time Treachery

by Jeremy James

The Word of God tells us that, when the LORD sends His judgment upon the wicked, the scale and ferocity of the woes that befall them will be too much to comprehend. From day to day they will hear further reports of what has just happened on the earth and will not be able to believe it:

“From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a vexation only to understand the report.” (Isaiah 28:19)

As one commentator said, “the calamity would be so great that it would fill the mind with horror only to hear of it.”

Jesus earned this victory on Calvary, the fulfilment of which has been deferred until the Holy Spirit has accomplished certain tasks among humanity during the Church Age.

The great irony is that the wicked will turn on each other during their reign of lawlessness. In one of the most remarkable examples of paronomasia or word-play in the Bible, Isaiah says, in chapter 24: “bagadu bogidiym bagadu ubeged bogediym”, which the KJV translates as “the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously.” (Isaiah 24:16)

The same thought may be found in Isaiah 33:1: “when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with thee.”

Given the time we are living in, it makes sense to reflect often on the fate of the wicked. Their arrogance is such that they are now flaunting schemes and plans which they were at one time at pains to conceal. Unelected individuals, purely on the basis of their wealth and social standing, are telling the nations of the world how they must behave. Klaus Schwab, the head of a private consortium of ultra-wealthy financiers and businessmen, has announced a ‘Great Reset’ which will turn the world economy upside down, while Bill Gates of Microsoft fame is threatening to block out the sun, release genetically modified mosquitoes into the environment, and impose a vaccine-tracking surveillance system on the entire world. It beggars belief, but it shows how far we have advanced into the dark domain of the Fourth Kingdom prophesied by Daniel.

The psychology behind their arrogant show-and-tell attitude

This arrogant, show-and-tell attitude is intended to convince the population that resistance is futile. Through constant repetition, along with continuous endorsement by persons in authority, the public is being tricked into believing that these changes are inevitable, that they spring naturally from a moral imperative which overrides the views or preferences of any individual, group or nation.

The average person has forgotten that evil exists, and the few who have not forgotten have tended to underestimate the cruelty, venality and depravity of those who serve Satan. Virtually every government in the world today is fully committed to the agenda set by these people.

Satan could offer the whole world to Jesus in the wilderness, provided he bowed down before him. Others have received similar offers, for lesser rewards, and bound their souls in the process. Thus it can be seen that the wealth of the world is controlled by Satan, who dispurses his bounty bit by bit to those who serve him.

Today the destiny of nations is decided by men who have sworn their allegiance to Satan. The few who know this are not unduly troubled, largely because they imagine – foolishly – that the wicked will be satisfied with what they have. But Satan is never satisfied, and neither are those who serve him. As the Word of God says:

“Hell and destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied.”
(Proverbs 27:20)

Recent history proves their murderous intent

Their longterm plan to take complete control of the entire earth became eerily apparent in the course of the 20th century when they murdered tens of millions in Europe, Russia and China en route to forging a political entity known as the United Nations. This is the prototype for a world government and has served since its foundation in 1945 as the main international clearing house for Communist ideology, subversive doctrines and political chicanery.

This wicked cabal decided long ago that a fully functioning world government will only emerge when all vestiges of the old system have been torn asunder. In short, terror, murder and mayhem will be used – in a systematic and strategic manner – to coerce and overcome the masses of humanity.

The same wealthy families and dynastic bloodlines which planned and financed World Wars I and II are planning another major international conflict. Christians need to understand that these people have no qualms about killing millions of people. They have shown this over and over. While they profess to be civilized and peace-loving, their longterm plans include a dramatic reduction in the world’s population. Advances in technology – expedited, no doubt, by Satan – have given this wicked cabal an amazing variety of ways to harm mankind.

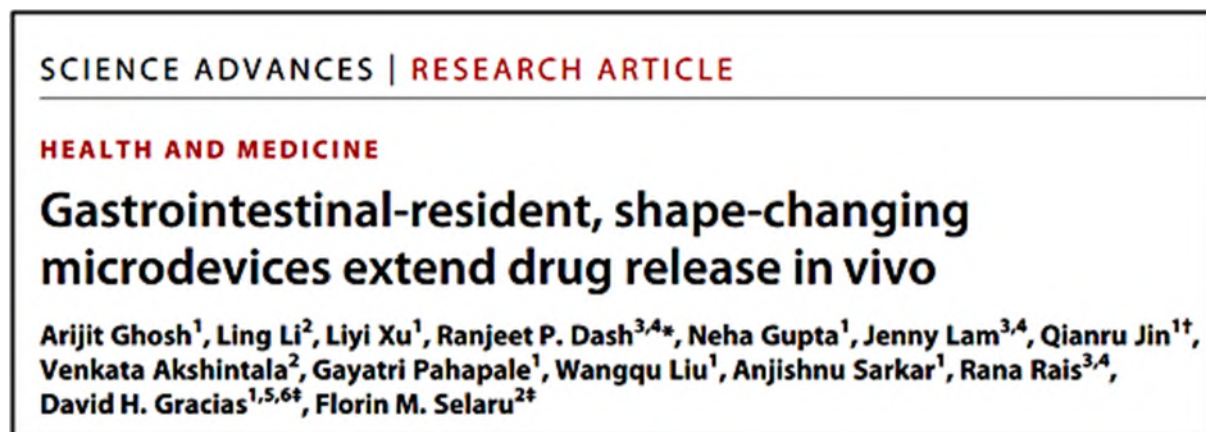

The Battle of the Somme began on 1 July 1916. On that day alone the Allies suffered 19,240 fatalities, caused by their own generals, who ordered these young men to rise from their shelters and assault the German machine gun entrenchments. Every time they did this, they were mown down. This futile exercise was repeated over and over, for no purpose. Nearly all the carnage of the 20th century was caused by generals who were working for the international banking elite.

We have discussed these in previous papers, but new ones continue to emerge. We recently came across a paper which shows just how real these threats are, how many innocent people they can potentially affect, and how little they cost to produce and distribute. If nothing else, this new type of threat reveals how far the ruling Luciferian Elite are prepared to go to impose their will on mankind.

The ‘theragripper’

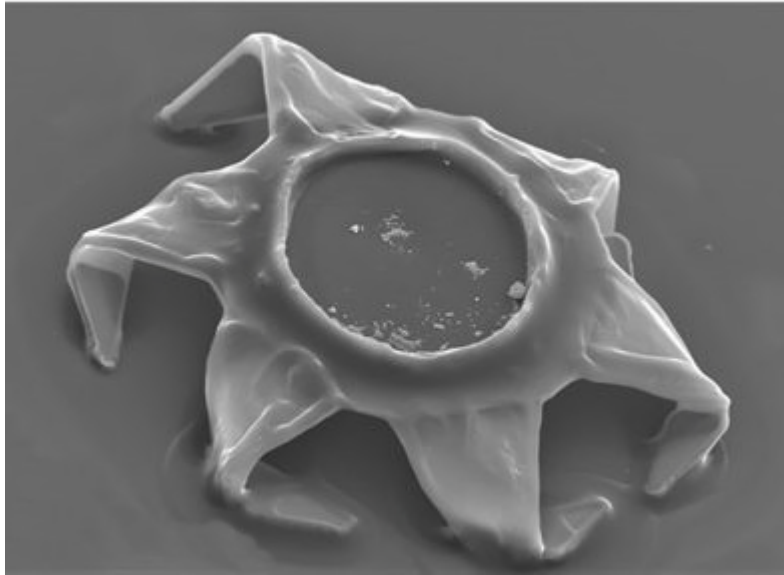

Last year scientists at Johns Hopkins University published a paper which described a device that allows slow-release drugs to be administered, orally it seems, and retained for several hours in the gut until the slow-release process has run its course. It comprises a tiny six-pointed metallic star with a coating which responds to body heat, causing the projecting arms of the star to fold like a claw and grip the wall of the gastrointestinal tract. The central portion of this therapeutic gripper (‘theragripper’) holds the slow-release drug – see photos overleaf.

Paper published by research scientists at Johns Hopkins University on 28 October, 2020.

Ten years ago a discovery of this kind would have been regarded as a promising step forward in medical science, providing a safe, low cost form of medical intervention. The theragrippers would fall away after a day or so and safely exit the body via the GI tract.

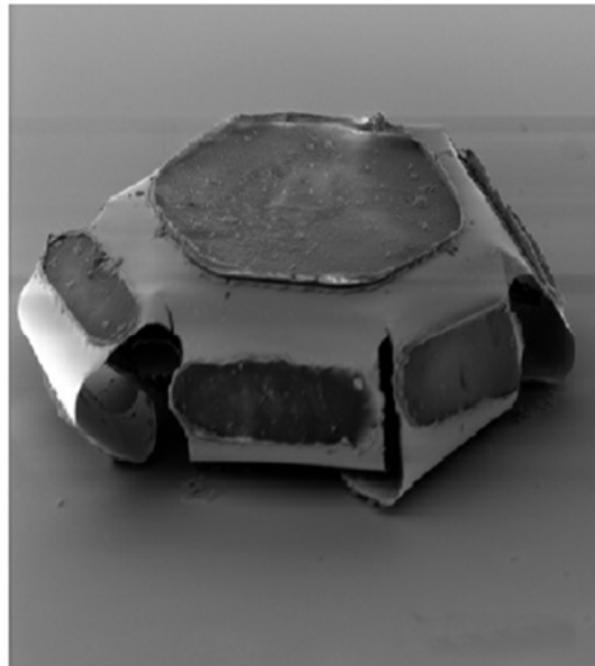

Alas, today we are obliged to look more closely at this technology. The theragrippers are so small that they could be introduced surreptitiously into one’s body. Once inside they would be certain to deliver a specified dose of whatever drug they were carrying. The target (or victim) would never realize that this had happened and no residue would be left for inspection. In short, these tiny devices could be used as an undetectable weapon on a target population.

Theragripper, about the size of a speck of dust.

The central platform can be used to hold a tiny dose of medication.

On 3 November 2020 Johns Hopkins sent out a press release announcing their new discovery. It carried a photo which was intended to illustrate just how small the theragridders are. Given the grave concerns that many have regarding the safety of nasal swabs and the scope they offer to introduce harmful substances into one's body, the image used in the press release was chilling:

The dust-like specks on the swab are theragridders.

A sceptic might say, “Well anybody would notice these and ask for a clean swab.” Well, in practice, a person receiving a Covid test is unlikely to ask to inspect the swab. Besides, he or she would only notice the ‘dust’ if it was dark. White theragridders would be impossible to detect with the naked eye.

At the start of 2020, less than one tenth of one percent of adults had received even one nasal swab in their lifetime. Today a very sizeable proportion of the entire population are receiving these swabs every few months! Given that most of these swabs are made in Communist China, it would be very foolish indeed to ignore their potential as a secret weapon in a silent, asymmetric war.

Our sceptic might object once again, “But the amount of any drug that these could deliver would be much too small to have any serious effect.” Before the advent of biogenetic technology, this may have seemed a reasonable objection. In the world of mRNA technology, however, nano-scale invaders can be fatal. We already know that Covid vaccines work by delivering transformative genetic substances into our cells. The tiny platform at the center of each theragrigger could be used for the same purpose – or as a means of implanting cancer-causing genes in our GI tract or introducing hepatitis-infected spores into our bloodstream.

We would never need to consider such sinister possibilities if the nations were led by the kind of people we meet every day. But in a world where truly evil people are firmly entrenched in positions of power, we cannot afford to ignore these possibilities.

The Bible warns in the darkest terms that this wicked cabal will initiate terrifying acts of barbarity in the End Time. The evil impulse that drives them to these extremes is already at work in their hard, rebellious hearts. Given that this is so, we would be very foolish to imagine that anything they are doing at this time is well-intended or that they are not already perpetrating crimes and atrocities so vile that, if the public got to hear of them, they would cringe in disbelief.

Why won't pastors warn their flocks?

It would make an enormous difference if pastors were warning their flocks, but they are not. Most are doing the opposite and urging their parishioners to submit to each and every edict issued by the government, no matter how absurd or unscriptural it may be. And it is getting worse. Increasingly we are hearing of pastors and elders who actually condemn any believer who dares to question the government or point to the huge disparity between government policy and the Word of God.

Thankfully, there are a few exceptions. We would like to share two which we feel are especially helpful at this time. The first is a sermon preached by Pastor John Weaver of Waycross, Georgia on 11 April:

Pastor Weaver begins by examining the reasons given for mask wearing, but around the 25-minute mark he dramatically expands his presentation into a full-blown exposé of the New World Order [See our Podbean link]. The following excerpts give a taste of what, for many Christians, will be an eye-opening account of the deadly attack which the forces of darkness are currently conducting against the Church and all humanity:

Pastor John Weaver [excerpts]

“Masks are absolutely useless except for evidence of control and submission. They harm; they do not help.”

“Everyone has viruses. You have thousands of viruses. Many of them are good viruses; a few are bad...It’s the immune system that keeps the bad viruses under control.”

“The grand thieves are running the country. That’s our problem and that is a fact. Propaganda, misinformation... and lies have conditioned the sheeple to obey without thinking and to obey without resistance, which ultimately will lead to their own destruction...”

He quotes at length from an article by Gary D Barnett published on LewRockwell.com on 6 April, titled: The next phase of this fake pandemic will be premeditated mass murder by ‘vaccine’. Pastor Weaver read out the following excerpts:

“The stage is set, the plan is in place, and the people are still asleep. The realization that this state [i.e. the US government] has declared war on the American people is unknown to most, and when the killing reaches high levels, the sheep will be told it is due to a mutated virus variant, and it is their fault for not being injected quickly enough with a poisonous ‘vaccine’ administered by this same criminal state. Make no mistake about it; you are the enemy of the state in this war against mankind. This manufactured pandemic began with lies, and was perpetuated by mass propaganda; so much so as to cause extreme fear and panic out of thin air.

“This is what real domestic terrorism looks like, and it is being executed by the United States government under the control of its masters in banking, finance, and corporate America; those at the top of the pyramid of power that make up the Council on Foreign Relations, the Trilateral Commission, the Bilderberg Group, and all the major players in science, technology, the mainstream media, medicine, and the pharmaceutical industry. This long-planned plot to depopulate the earth and take total control over all of us could be considered ingenious but for the fact that it is pure evil...”

“The end game sought by these totalitarian monsters is to inject each and every American with this experimental, mind-altering, body changing, genetic reshaping, and deadly operating system falsely being called a Covid ‘vaccine.’ It is not a vaccine at all, but a control and depopulation tool purposely designed to cause extreme sickness and death. These adverse responses caused by these toxic injections will not be correctly blamed on the shot, but will instead be used to claim that mutated variant expressions of the non-existent Covid-19 strain are the culprit. This will allow for more fear and panic in order to set up more demand for ‘vaccination.’ These never-ending crises will cause a much higher percentage of Americans to voluntarily seek out and take this virulent injection, and this will of course lead to an unending array of critical dilemmas, just as the state desires.”

“This is not a vaccine; it is gene therapy.” It is not approved by the FDA but authorized for use only as an emergency measure. This means you have to sign a consent form before you can receive it. “Once you sign you are waiving all liability, you are saying that you are totally responsible, and you are agreeing to be a human guinea-pig. They do not know what it’s going to do in your body. You don’t know what it’s going to do in your body. But once you take it, it is irreversible. It cannot be reversed, it cannot be gotten out of your system. It will change your RNA, it will change your system, period.”

“Look at the [number of] pregnant women who have taken the shot and immediately miscarried. They’ve already said they have no idea how it is going to attack the fertility in men and women as well.”

According to a European regulator: “There is a clear link between the AstraZeneca vaccine and potentially deadly blood clots.”

Pastor Weaver said he recently sent out a 4-minute video clip to his church members which explained why the Covid vaccines were dangerous. All four vaccines – Pfizer, Moderna, Johnson & Johnson, and AstraZeneca – “penetrate the blood-brain barrier, and once they get to your brain” they can cause all kinds of disease.

“I am simply pointing out [that] this is an experimental vaccine... This [sermon] is a warning.”

He also warned about the dangers of 5G technology. “The very first city to really initiate 5G technology was Wuhan, China.”

“The 5G or 60 GHz technology mimics the so-called Coronavirus down to every symptom. Corona is merely a cover for the devastating 5G network.” From his research he has found evidence that 5G promotes the production of virus-like structures inside our cells, such as coronavirus and Covid-19.

He refers also to the implantable microchip and digital ID which Big Pharma and Microsoft have developed “which hooks you up to the Cloud, where they can control every part of your being and know what you’re doing. It’s unbelievable.”

He quotes Dr Mike Yeadon, former chief scientist with Pfizer: “I’m well aware of the global crimes against humanity being perpetrated against a large proportion of the world’s population. Please warn every person not to go near top-up or booster vaccine shots. There’s absolutely no need for them...I can only deduce that they will be used for nefarious purposes...It is entirely possible that [the system being put in place right now] will be used for massive scale depopulation.”

Pastor Weaver: “The end goal is depopulation.”

“One of the biggest mistakes we are [making], and have [made], in this country is that our government is our friend and has our best interests in mind. It is NOT our friend. It does NOT have our best interests in mind.”

Our second sermon is by pastor Paul Dowling of Armagh, Northern Ireland:

 RASHARKIN

Covid Churches Tyranny, Compromise, Oppression

Preached at Special Meeting in Rasharkin friday 30th April 2021
Reading Daniel 3 v 1-6,12-13,16-19,23-30

A Wee Word to

1. Church Leaders
2. Secular Government
3. Christians

We have yet to come across a pastor who has articulated so clearly and so Biblically the appalling way church leaders have responded to the Covid crisis, specifically the closure of our churches and the severe restrictions placed on Christian worship.

He has “a wee word” for the frauds, liars and hypocrites who, professing to be Christian – including pastors and elders – reject the LORD’s unequivocal commands regarding Christian worship. If a secular government tells them to shut their doors, they do so without a second thought and without any attempt to challenge the false authority which the government is exercising or the patently Christ-hating character of their pointless decrees.

Pastor Paul Dowling [excerpts]

“The year 2020-2021 – corona idiocy, government dictatorship and overreach...”

Why were all of these harmful restrictions imposed? Why were our churches closed? “Because our God-hating, evil government said so – and church leaders [were] largely silent as wee mice, obedient as mindless robots.”

“A division has been created in the churches by the church leaders.”

To church leaders and pastors

A “wee word” to ministers, pastors and church leaders: “You closed the churches. You hindered worship. You laid extra-biblical rules on God’s people, like Pharisees, burdens that are grievous to be borne. I want to ask you this: Who gave you the authority to make those decisions? What passage or chapter or book in the Bible gives you that authority?” No one in the Bible had that authority: “Not one!” “Not even the Old Testament high priest had that authority.”

“Where have our [church] leaders taken this authority for themselves? Not from the Bible. And there’s no use saying, ‘Oh, the government told me to’ – They don’t have that authority either!”

Agape, Christian love, is self-sacrificial love. “Is it loving your neighbor to tell them to stay at home? Is it loving your neighbor to say don’t praise God and don’t sing? Is it loving your neighbor to avoid the sick, to stay six feet away, to leave elderly people alone, and is it loving your neighbor to let old people die in hospital on their own, to let a husband or a wife die without their spouse holding their hand? That’s not love! That’s the complete opposite of love! I say to all church leaders, Do you realize you will give an account to God for your actions very soon? He’s going to ask you, ‘Where did you think you got that authority?’

“Why have some church leaders twisted the Scriptures to their own destruction? Your interpretation of Romans 13, that we obey the secular government, is stupendously pathetic...Your hermeneutics are RUBBISH when it comes to Romans 13. You broke the cardinal rule, that scripture interprets scripture!”

He mentions several of the great figures in the Bible who disobeyed secular authority, including direct orders from kings and civil government – Daniel, Shadrach, Meshach, Abegnego, and the twelve Apostles as a group. They did so in obedience to God’s Word! Was Daniel sinning when he disobeyed King Darius? Of course not. “And God saved them and preserved them and blessed them for their obedience to Him!”

After putting these two questions to pastors and ministers – 1. Who gave you the authority? and 2. Why are you twisting the scriptures? – he asked a third question: “What on earth do you really, actually believe?”

“They profess to believe in the perpetuality [i.e. permanence and continuity] of worship of God... They say they believe that the Bible is the regulative principle of faith and worship, our guide in practise... Do they believe that at all? No, they DON’T. Their lives and their actions prove they do not believe that... They stopped worship! They closed the churches! They stopped fellowship!...”

“You don’t turn out a lighthouse in a storm. You don’t beach the lifeboat when people are perishing.” Our churches must stay open if we are to save souls.

“What do you really believe? Not much. That’s my message to Christian church leaders... You need to repent of your sin and turn to the Lord Jesus Christ and believe the Bible.”

To politicians and governments

Referring to secular governments – Westminster, Stormont, the Dáil – he warns of the severe judgment of God, citing examples of superpowers humbled in the Old Testament, their leaders killed (Pharaoh, Sennacherib, Belshazzar) or severely chastised (Nebuchadnezzar). “I say this to the governments of these islands [UK and Ireland], How dare you close churches! How dare you stop worship! How dare you send [police officers] to the church and illegally caution the church leadership! How dare you! How dare they take people’s jobs and remove the freedom to meet! How dare they stop people attending religious services and funerals, and stop hospital treatment for those who are seriously ill, driving up depression and suicide... Who gave them the right to do that?! The politicians, the government, I say to you: You are going to pay from what you’ve done! You are going to be held responsible for what you have done...”

It is the responsibility of civil governments “to guard people’s freedoms, not remove them.” He reminds his listeners of the favorite slogan of the Nazis in the 1930s when they were taking away everyone’s freedom: “es ist zu Ihrer Sicherheit” – “It’s for your safety.” Our governments today are using the same Nazi method of social control.

To Christians as individuals

To Christians everywhere: “How do you see yourself in this crisis? A victim? A frightened rabbit? A wee lemming, who just does what everyone else does, without thinking? Or do you see yourself as a Christian soldier who wants to help those facing depression and a frightening death? Do you see yourself as trusting God?”

“What about just obeying God’s commands – church, praise, fellowship, prayer, breaking of bread? Are those things reckless? Was God being reckless when He wrote the Bible? No! Those things are safe. In those things we obey God. We trust Him. We do not stop.”

“To disobey His Word is sin – sin!”

Today’s Christians are saying, in effect, Let us sin against God and He’ll keep us safe.

“For any Christians who have disobeyed God, repent and He’ll forgive you.”

“Secondly, I would ask believers: What about your fear? Your fear is disobedience to God.”

He quotes Psalm 91:4-6

“He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler [your defense, your protection]. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.”

He points out that the words “Thou shalt not be afraid” is an imperative in the Hebrew – Thou shalt NOT be afraid! It’s a command. “Do you believe God? Do you believe this book [the Bible]? It is sin to fear what God says you should not fear.”

More than one person has said to Pastor Dowling: “You Christians are more afraid that we are!”

“What have the churches done since 2020?... Is God’s name proclaimed throughout the nation? The complete opposite! The complete opposite!”

“It is the height of cowardice to close [our churches] when people are fearful.”

“To break a commandment of God is sin. It doesn’t matter what commandment.”

With reference to the example given by Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, he asks: “Are we willing to trust in God even if He doesn’t deliver us and we do have to suffer the consequences?... We need to be willing to obey what the Bible says, even if it costs us our lives.” [He called this “but if not” faith after the statement in Daniel chapter 3:

“If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.”
(Daniel 3:17-18)

He cites several verses which plainly state what God has commanded with regard to prayer, worship, fellowship, and breaking of bread, including Acts 2:42:

“And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.” (Acts 2:42).

But the churches have failed to do this. They have disobeyed God's commandment. “That's sin. It's bowing down to the world's idol... bowing down to Caesar.”

“While they're [behaving] like robots in their obedience, Caesar is...bringing in this conversion therapy law [re counselling of homosexuals] to stop the preaching of the Gospel, and patting them on the head and saying, ‘Good, wee puppies, doing what you're told.’ Sickening!”

“I have this message to all Christians tonight. Number one: Wise up. Number two: Grow a backbone. Where are the men, meaning men in the true sense of the word, strong men and women?...The church has become so sissified. Stand up like men and women of God...We need to stand. We should have stood from the beginning... [Number three]: Get some leaders in your church. I mean real leaders. Not pet lambs. Not wee feminized nancies.”

“A shepherd has a rod and staff, and it comforts the sheep [Psalm 23]. What's the staff for? The staff is for rescue and for leading the lambs. What's the rod for? Pastors, shepherds, what's the rod for? The rod's for smashing the head of the wolves when they come near the flock... Most ministers and pastors wouldn't know a rod if it bit them. They are the wolves – some of them – and they let the wolves right into the flock.”

[The pastor finishes with a very strong message (from minute 43) which we urge you to listen to.]

CONCLUSION

The treachery described by these two pastors is very much what we would expect from Satan and his servants in the End Time.

Neither of the pastors interpret these events through the lens of End Time prophecy, which (paradoxically) makes their testimony even more compelling. Their theological training probably makes it difficult for them to do so, nevertheless they give – in our opinion – a striking description of a world sinking rapidly beneath the rising tide of the Antichrist spirit. They call it as they see it, and they see it very clearly.

Pastor Dowling speaks of pastors and ministers who are little more than “wee feminized nancies.” There are no Christian leaders, or so few they are hard to find. Most of them have no idea what it means to defend the flock. They bow before Caesar and sup at his table. They have a mocking contempt for anyone who dares to ask, “Why are our churches closed? Why is the Gospel not being preached? Why are we not coming together and praising the LORD? Why are we not breaking bread and celebrating the Lord’s Supper?”

Remember, these mocking voices are those of our own church leaders!

Pastor Weaver makes it abundantly clear that the Davos crowd, the Bilderberg Group, the international banking cartel, and the powerful individuals and institutions who support the New World Order are behind all of this. They are steeped in evil and are well capable of executing a worldwide genocidal program using vaccine technology.

We are under attack from our own governments! The pastors spell this out. We need to heed what he’s saying. The only obedience we are seeing at this time is obedience to the dictates of our duplicitous governments. The obedience we owe to God is forgotten!

Video posted on Gemma O’Doherty’s website on 7 May 2021.

The author participated in a discussion panel with two outspoken Irish patriots, Gemma O’Doherty and John Waters, on 7 May (see links above). Speaking about the Covid vaccines, we were struck by the willingness of so many people to inject a substance into their bodies – and into their children – which had never been properly tested and which employs potentially harmful gene-altering technology. If anything illustrates the perverse willingness of mankind to give obedience to governments instead of God, regardless of the cost, this is it.

Lest anyone doubt where this is going, look at Israel. A group of concerned citizens in that country, possessing the necessary skills to do so, compiled (with some difficulty) from a variety of sources an archive of adverse reactions to the Covid vaccine. The overview it provided was chilling. In a report published a few weeks ago on the-people-committee.com, the group stated:

While the Prime Minister of Israel and senior officials of the Ministry of Health brag that Israel serves as a global model for nationwide vaccination, and while they boast that Pfizer has chosen us to be the experimental country thanks to the advanced technological systems of our HMOs [Health Maintenance Organizations], the state has systematically shut down all monitoring and tracking systems, which are designed to identify and alert of adverse events that occur in proximity of receiving the vaccine. This irresponsible conduct by the Ministry of Health during this mass operation providing an experimental treatment to millions of people, regardless of whether such conduct is negligent or intentional, has led to an unprecedented flood of thousands of serious adverse event reports after the vaccine on social media, which seems to be the only forum that still allows people to share their experiences.

If, as they say, the state (i.e. the government) has shut down all monitoring and tracking systems, then the government is complicit in a serious crime. This crime is being committed against its own people! – just as Pastor Weaver says is happening in America today.

The group also found, from their analysis of 1,956 cases, that the vaccine could adversely affect virtually every system in the body: coronary, neurological, pulmonary, circulatory, autoimmune, endocrine, lymphatic, gynecological, dermatological, visual, auditory, digestive, renal, and muscular.

The people of Israel are being forced to take the vaccine in order to qualify for the ‘Green Pass’ which will enable them to enter shops, public transport etc. Non-vaccinated people are increasingly being treated as a danger to society. This is what the Elite have planned for every country on earth. If a savvy, well-educated people like the citizens of Israel, with a rich cultural heritage, can be coerced and subdued in this way, what chance have countries with lower educational standards, less online participation, fewer international connections, and less experience dealing with determined enemies?

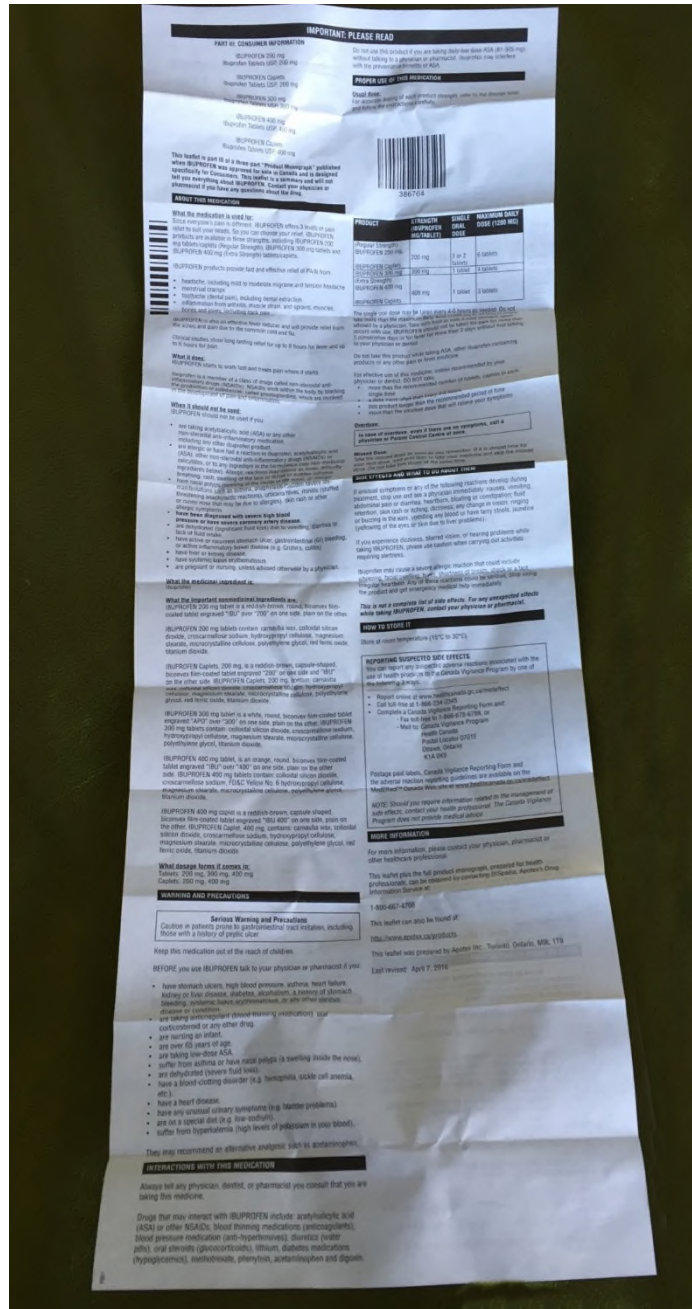

The arrogance shown by the self-appointed elite who are implementing the New World Order is an indication of the incredible pride which fuels their whole outlook. It may be compared with the pride of Moab, which Jeremiah described in strident terms:

“We have heard the pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud)
his loftiness, and his arrogancy, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.”
(Jeremiah 48:29)

In just one verse the Word of God refers to this dreadful spiritual poison no fewer than six times. I don’t think there is another verse quite like it in the Bible.

This “arrogancy” has been evident in numerous ways over the past year. We could give dozens of examples, but perhaps the most graphic is their attitude toward those who are foolish enough to take their wretched vaccines. When recipients of either the Johnson & Johnson vaccine or the Moderna vaccine ask to see the vaccine insert – the detailed technical document in each vaccine carton which is supposed to provide patient information, contraindications, a complete list of known adverse reactions, clinical pharmacology etc – they are given a huge blank sheet with a two-word message: ‘Intentionally blank.’

The picture below is an insert for a NON vaccine, an over-the-counter product known as ibuprofen, which is available without prescription or supervision:

Overleaf we give the corresponding insert for two highly experimental, gene-based products which have never been tested on animals:

Moderna Covid vaccine insert

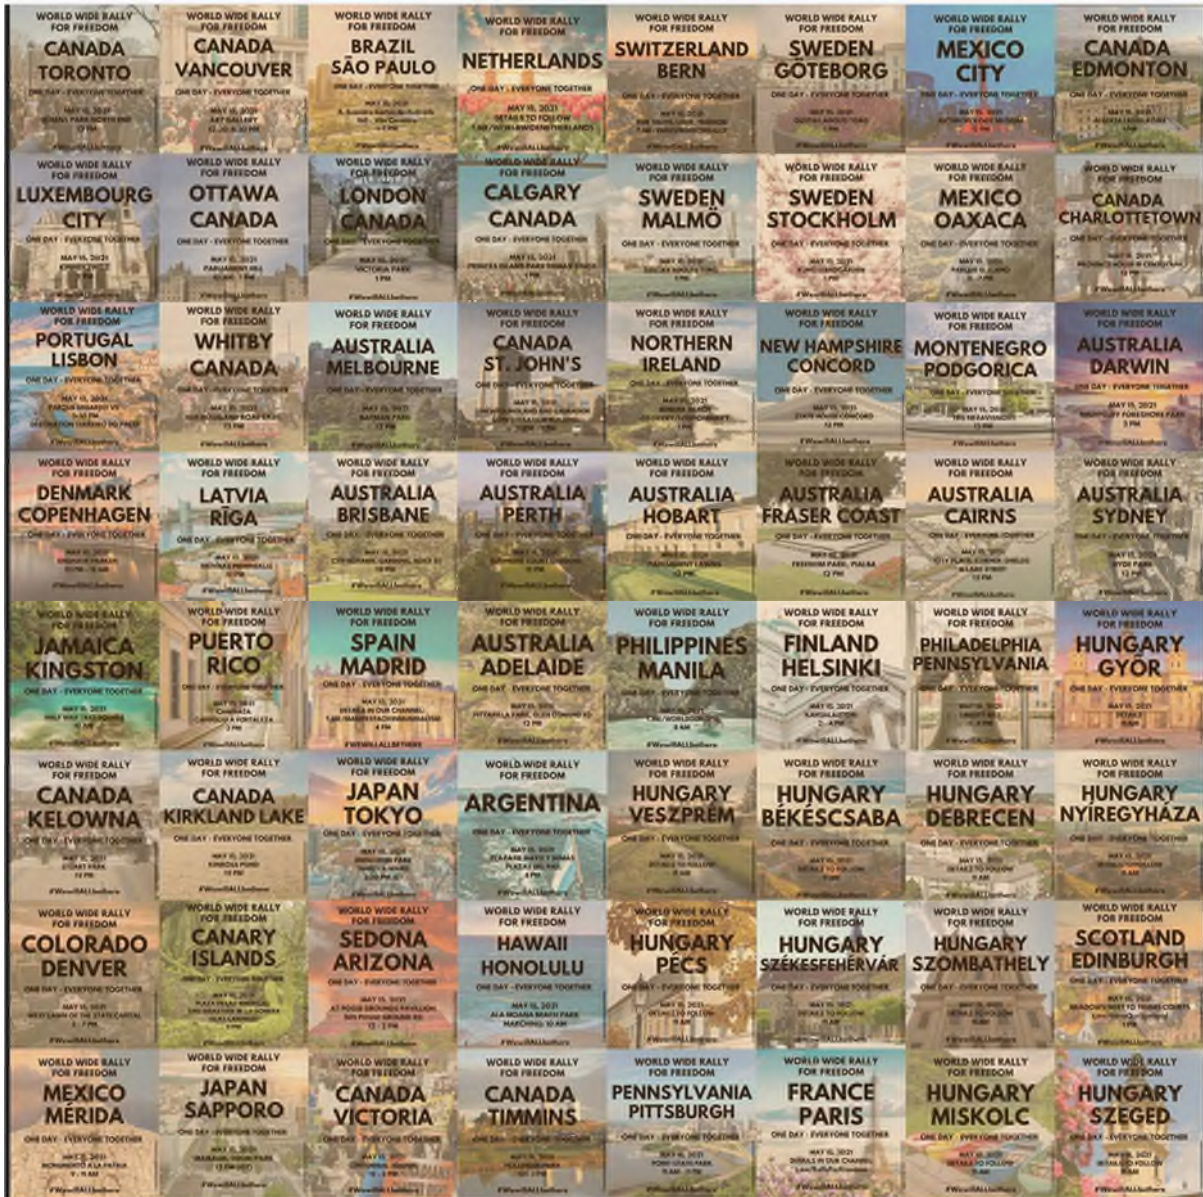

The same arrogance is directed at those who profess to oppose them. Instead of banning largescale public protests, they organize them! To the average person, this doesn't make any sense, but it is a concept known as "the controlled opposition." Rather than allow those who oppose them to organize freely, they infiltrate their ranks and do the job instead. This enables them to guide the process and where necessary (but only where necessary) create division, pass out misinformation, discredit those who are too effective, waste resources, set the agenda, and so forth. It is a subtle and devious business which, to a normal person, is not always easy to understand.

Many who hate the New World Order, the lockdowns, the masks, and the totalitarian tactics which are being used to oppress a ‘free’ society are eager to attend freedom rallies. The Elite know this and so they organize these rallies as part of their “controlled opposition.” It’s a mark of their arrogance that they make no real effort to hide their involvement. See for yourself:

WORLD WIDE RALLY FOR FREEDOM, 20 March 2021

WORLD WIDE RALLY FOR FREEDOM, 15 May 2021

We might like to think there is a worldwide organization ‘fighting’ this tyranny and organizing these events. Alas, that is not the case. In fact, it is doubtful whether any country has as yet developed a serious form of national resistance. The formatting of these posters and the timing of these events show that they are being organized by the same group of people. And who do you think those people are?

The Scottish poet, Robbie Burns, described the mouse as “a wee timorous beastie.” Cats kill these timid creatures at their leisure, purely for pleasure. For those who have the heart of a mouse, these will be very frightening times. The callous cats of the New World Order will tear them apart. But for those who trust in God, and through this trust enjoy the heart of a lion, the road ahead will be very different. They will walk with the Lion of Judah “and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.” (Micah 4:4)
