

Word Magic and the Placename Columbus

by Jeremy James

In previous papers we have given details of the extensive occult configurations that the Illuminati have erected across the landscape in both the US and Britain, as well as major cities like London and Rome. These generally consist of obelisks, stone columns, and large monoliths. The patterns defined by these can include asterisms (star patterns seen in the night sky), triangles and pentagrams, and symbols associated with the religion of Ancient Egypt.

This is the 'hidden in plain view' exaltation of paganism which the modern Babylonians like to practise. Their beliefs stretch all the way back to Nimrod and his violent rebellion against the order established by God. The main vehicle they are using to plan and construct these occultic patterns is Freemasonry. We can therefore expect the symbols of Freemasonry, notably the circle and its central point, to feature somewhere in these patterns. The occult obsession with word symbology or word magic should also feature, but, until now, we have not found a good example of this.

Recurring Placenames

A promising subject for this kind of analysis is recurring placenames. They can be distributed over a wide geographical area, just like stone monuments, and can form similar patterns. The local geographical area comprehended by a name, such as the name of a town, is reduced to a point when viewed on a national scale. We'll see how this works in a moment.

Instances of popular topographical names can be found across America. Many towns are called 'Springfield' or 'Franklin'. We began our study by inspecting names which crop up quite often and then identifying those which could possibly have a connection to Freemasonry. For example, Salem would be a good choice since it means 'Jerusalem'. Another promising avenue of enquiry are names associated with the headquarters of Freemasonry in America, the District of Columbia. For example, there are towns named Columbia in N Carolina, S Carolina, Maine, Missouri, Mississippi, Kentucky, Louisiana, and Alabama, plus several other states.

The names Columbia and Columbus are significant in their own right since they denote a dove. To a Christian the dove is a symbol of the Holy Spirit, but not to a high-level Freemason. In the Encyclopedia of Freemasonry, Mackey says: "In ancient symbolism, the dove represented purity and innocence; in ecclesiology, it is a symbol of the Holy Spirit. In Masonry, the dove is only viewed in reference to its use by Noah as a messenger." [emphasis added]

The District of Columbia – being the self-governing city of Washington D.C. – is the platform through which the gods of Freemasonry send their messages and directives to America and its leaders.

The dove is also closely associated with the wife of Nimrod, the deified Semiramis. It has long been recognized as a symbol of the benign side of her nature, as distinct from the wrathful side. She is the female figure who adorns the top of the dome on Capitol Hill. As Wikipedia coyly notes: “Although not actually called Columbia, she shares many of her iconic characteristics.”

Columbia is a goddess

Columbia, which Wikipedia fails to explain, is the goddess Semiramis under a name derived from her symbol, columba, the Latin word for dove. The Latinised form of the Italian word for dove, colombo, is Columbus.

When we did an analysis of 17 towns in the US named Columbia, we did not identify any significant patterns or Masonic allusions. However, when we switched to the 20 towns in the US named Columbus, the scene changed dramatically.

Columbus = Columbia

In Freemasonry, ‘Columbus Day’ – which is celebrated annually on the second Monday in October – has nothing to do with Christopher Columbus. Rather it is a day designed to honor the goddess Columbia. This is how the Illuminati get the masses to venerate their gods.

Columbia Pictures was founded by Harry Cohn, Jack Cohn, and Joe Brandt. In movie theatres across America, the goddess Columbia displayed her glory. Standing in splendor, she held aloft a torch which supposedly illuminated the land of America and its people. By doing this, she was taking the place of Christ as the light of the world.

The "torch lady" motif was introduced by Columbia Pictures in 1928. For nearly a century the citizens of America have been subtly programmed to believe that this female version of Lucifer, the Light-Bearer, was guiding the nation.

Location of the 20 towns named Columbus in the US.

“The Point Within a Circle”

The map above shows the locations of the 20 towns named Columbus in the US. There is nothing about their distribution which would suggest that their locations were chosen according to a precise Masonic formula. This formula applies “point within a circle” magic to the territory of the continental US.

Edmond Ronayne, who escaped the clutches of Freemasonry in the 19th century, described this magical system as follows:

"The Point within a Circle" is not only a pagan symbol, referring to the sun-god of Masonic worship from first to last, and borrowed directly from the "ancient initiations" of the old Baal mythology, but it is in fact as near a true representation of that lascivious idol – the Baal-peor of Moab – as common decency will permit the Grand High Priests of Masonry to represent it in books intended for general circulation. – The Master's Carpet, 1879 (p.319)

The rotunda of most state capitols is based on the ‘point within a circle’ motif – see photos at the start of this paper.

Overhead used in a Masonic lecture.

This overhead reveals how the line-point-circle symbolism refers to the sun and the sun's path in the sky. High-level Masons know that the sun is in real motion above the earth and that the earth itself is flat and stationary. The overhead also shows that the symbolism is derived from Hermetic Magic and the Kabbalah.

Line-Point-Circle symbolism

We'll now see how the line-point-circle symbolism – which celebrates the sun and the sun god – is expressed through the 20 towns named Columbus. Bear in mind that the pattern we are about to reveal was established about two centuries ago, not long after the foundation of the United States. As such it shows that the country itself was under the hidden control of Freemasonry from the very beginning, even down to the location and naming of towns.

Let's begin with the lines, since these are the easiest to find:

Instances where towns named ‘Columbus’ are aligned:

A	Columbus, N Dakota	Columbus, Nebraska	Columbus, Kansas
B	Columbus, Wisconsin	Columbus, Illinois	Columbus, Texas
C	Columbus, New Jersey	Columbus, Ohio	Columbus, Missouri
D	Columbus, Pennsylvania	Columbus, Ohio	Columbus, Texas
E	Columbus, N Dakota	Columbus, Minnesota	Columbus, Wisconsin	Columbus, Ohio

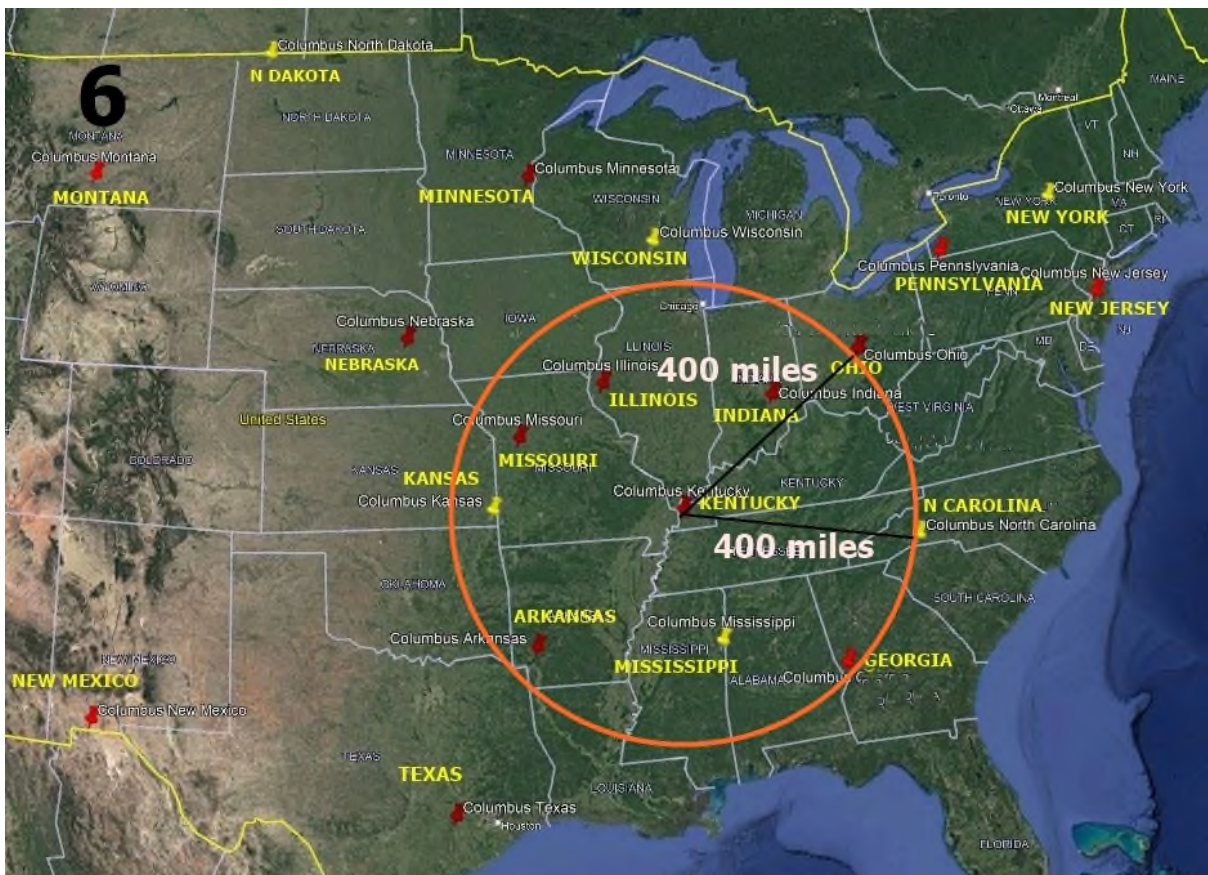

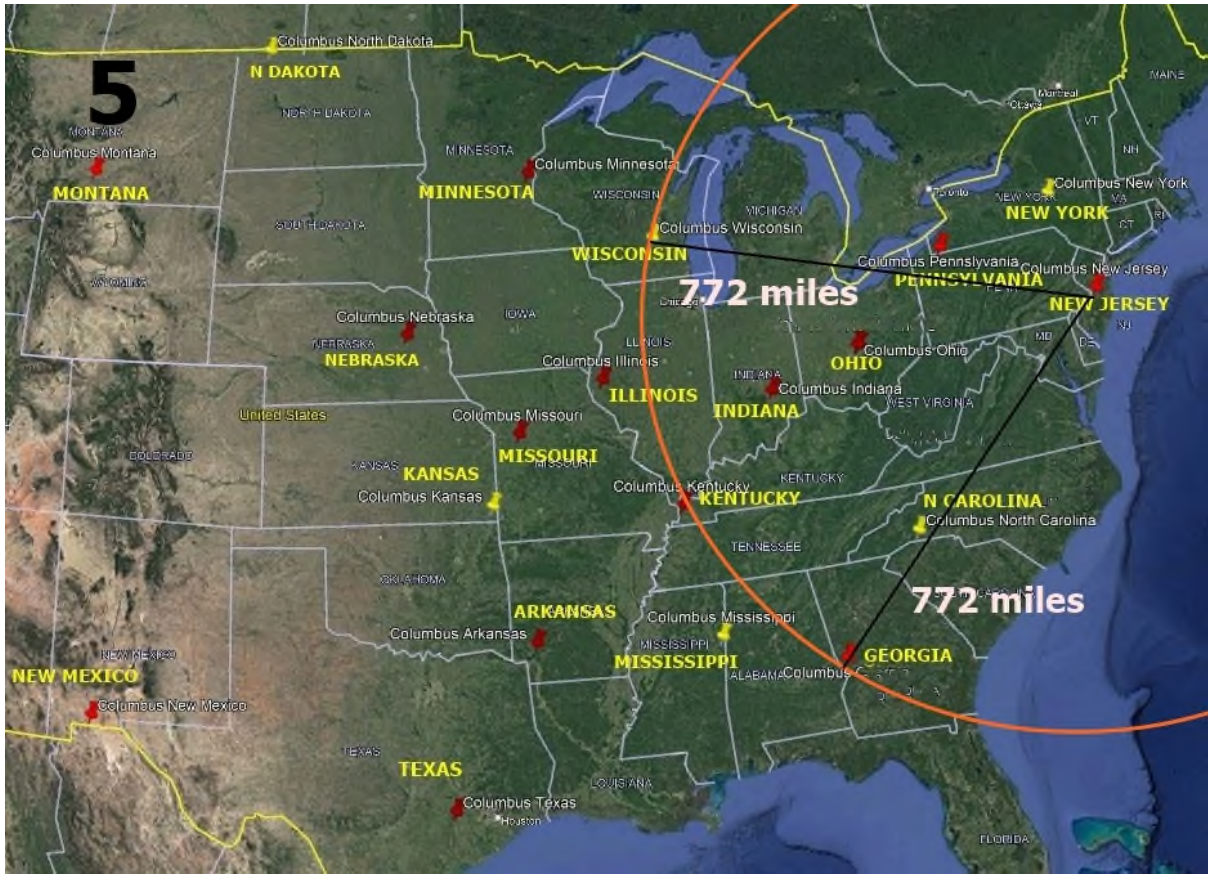

These curious alignments may have been noted by others in the past but the rationale behind them was not understood.

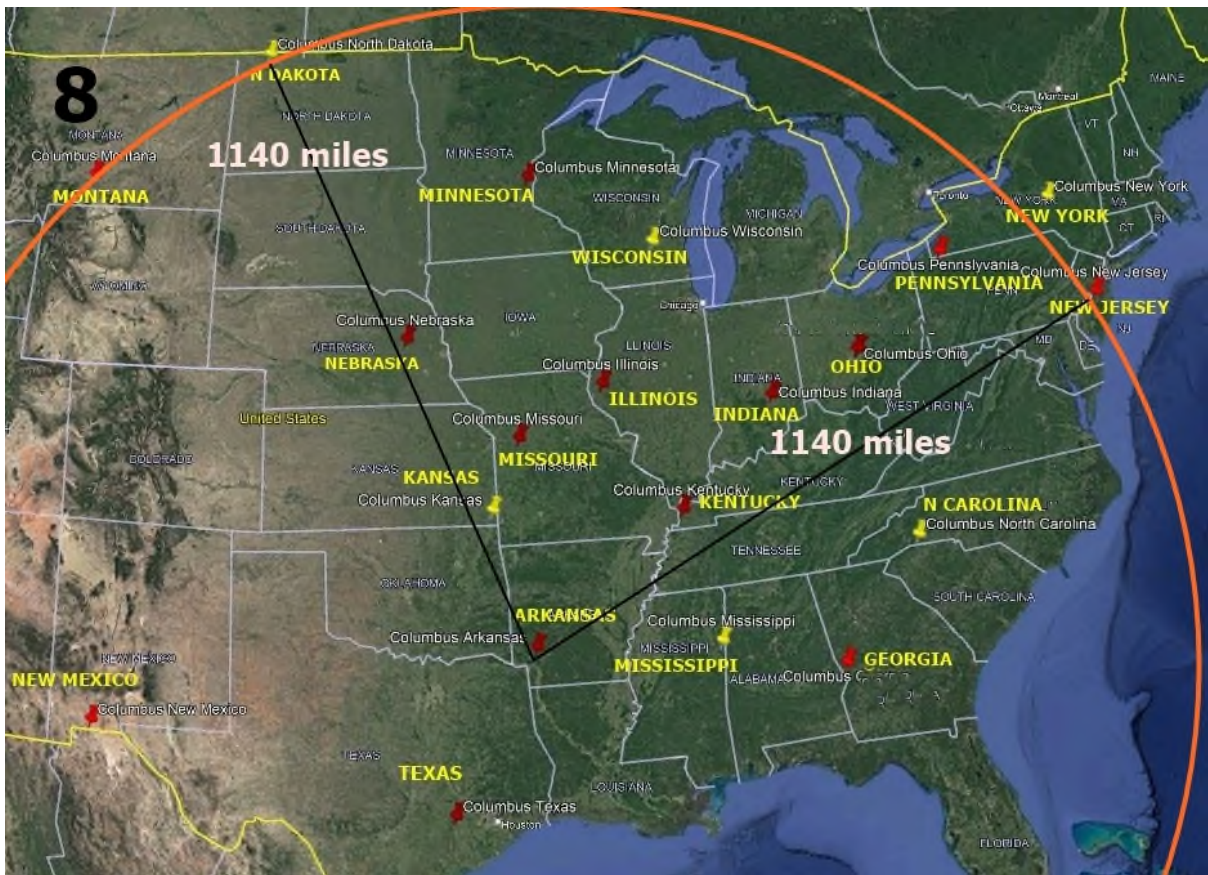

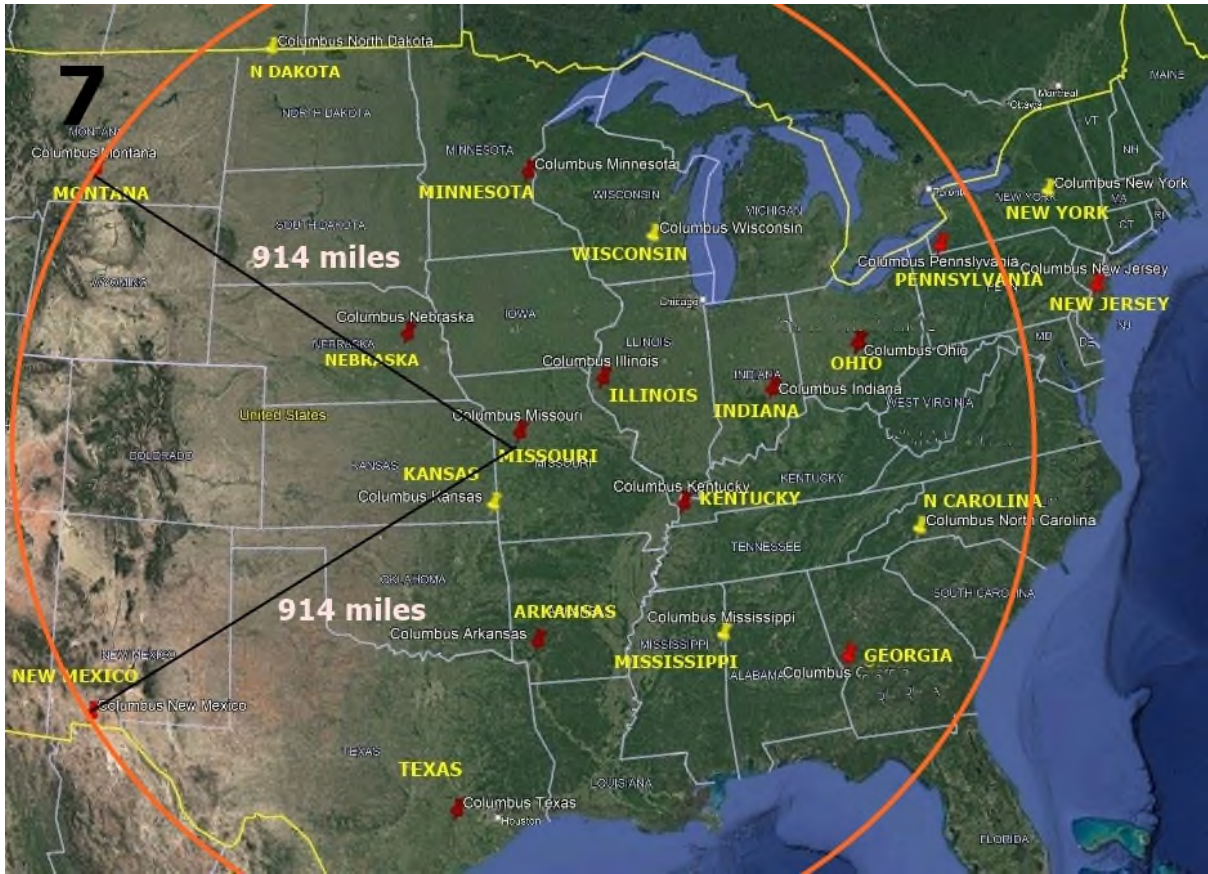

We now move on to the “point within a circle” motif. Overall we identified 14 circles connecting 19 of these towns. To avoid cramming too much information into one chart, we reproduce each circle on a separate chart:

Towns named 'Columbus' on each Circle

	Center	Circle Point A	Circle Point B	Radius in miles
1	Columbus, Nebraska	Columbus, N Carolina	Columbus, Georgia	925
2	Columbus, Illinois	Columbus, N Dakota	Columbus, New York	840
3	Columbus, Indiana	Columbus, New Jersey	Columbus, New York	600
4	Columbus, Ohio	Columbus, New Jersey	Columbus, New York	436
5	Columbus, New Jersey	Columbus, Georgia	Columbus, Wisconsin	772
6	Columbus, Kentucky	Columbus, N Carolina	Columbus, Ohio	400
7	Columbus, Missouri	Columbus, New Mexico	Columbus, Montana	914
8	Columbus, Arkansas	Columbus, New Jersey	Columbus, N Dakota	1140
9	Columbus, Texas	Columbus, Missouri	Columbus, Kentucky	648
10	Columbus, Minnesota	Columbus, New York	Columbus, N Carolina	897
11	Columbus, Pennsylvania	Columbus, Ohio	Columbus, New York	222
12	Columbus, Georgia	Columbus, Texas	Columbus, Pennsylvania	714
13	Columbus, New Mexico	Columbus, Ohio	Columbus, N Carolina	1483
14	Columbus, Montana	Columbus, Mississippi	Columbus, Ohio	1384

Every town named 'Columbus' appears at least once on a line or in a circle

	Town	State	Center of Circle No.	Line or Point on Circle
1	Columbus	Indiana	3
2	Columbus	Ohio	4	6 + 13 + 14 + C + D
3	Columbus	Minnesota	10	E
4	Columbus	New York		2 + 3 + 4 + 10
5	Columbus	New Jersey	5	3 + 4 + 8 + C
6	Columbus	New Mexico	13	7
7	Columbus	N Carolina		1 + 10 + 13
8	Columbus	N Dakota		2 + 8 + A + E

CONCLUSION

Why would anyone do something like this? It's important that we understand the mentality behind it because the descendants of the men who built this bizarre configuration are ruling America today.

The Word of God asks a similar question:

“Why do the heathen rage, and the people
imagine a vain thing?” (Psalm 2:1)

Have no doubt, the ‘Columbus Circles’ are a blasphemous creation, an expression of contempt for the order established by God. They exalt the goddess and secretly proclaim her dominion over the American people. Just like the Masonic circles that we discussed in previous papers, they lay claim to the territory of the United States and foresee a time when this occult authority will emerge into the open and reveal its presence.

Most Masons, namely those in the first three degrees, are probably unaware of the existence of these circles. They have been tricked by Satan into taking a vow of obedience to their “worshipful master” – a proxy for Satan himself – and severed their connection with the living God. The higher degree Masons, however, have a greater understanding of what is happening and willingly participate in the works of darkness in order to secure certain earthly benefits for themselves. They have, in effect, sold their souls to the devil.

Kabbalah word magic

The Columbus Circles are based on Kabbalistic word magic, where the alleged power in the name of a god is tapped in a ritualistic manner. Practitioners of the Kabbalah are obsessed with the magical power of words and the way this alleged power can be harnessed. They started by reducing the sacred name of God to a magical word and by doing so broke the Third Commandment.

The whole of the Kabbalah is a complex expression of Jewish apostasy, a path to self-enlightenment based on symbols, the invocation of angelic beings, and mysticism. It has no “good” parts! Alas, it has been cast in the form of abstract philosophy and theological speculation, thus leading practitioners into believing it is approved by God. The self-deception behind all of this is immense, but to those who have succumbed to its charms, it is the only real way to extrapolate the truth which God allegedly hid within His written Word.

The Jews sank into apostasy on a grand scale during their exile in Babylon. They pretended they had finally learned their lesson and set aside their worship of idols, but in reality they had replaced their outer idols with internal substitutes, products of their fertile imagination. They took the paganism of the Babylonians and absorbed it into a pantheon of mystical abstractions or “projections” of God. They also relegated the personal, knowable God of the Bible to a subordinate place in this pantheon and looked beyond to a supreme, unknowable divine source which they called En Sof.

In doing this they thought they were being very clever indeed. After all, they had not returned to the worship of idols and they had not rejected the God of the Bible. Or so they liked to believe.

If the Talmud is a highly elaborate attempt to tell God what He meant when He wrote the Old Testament, the Kabbalah is a highly sophisticated reinterpretation of the Old Testament, where even individual letters in a verse of scripture can hold the key to a hitherto unknown spiritual truth. A great many Jews today are trapped in one or both of these systems.

In their most extreme form both systems define Gentiles as inferior souls, incapable of attaining the illuminated state to which all Jews are heirs. They have taken the promises of God, where He made them His chosen people, and turned them into entitlements based on their 'superior' spiritual essence. Most Kabbalists believe their most revered writers made the same mystical journey to heaven that Ezekiel made and that they returned with a fresh nugget of wisdom to share with the Kabbalists who were qualified to receive it.

Written by a 33rd Degree Mason.

Neither the Talmud nor the Kabbalah teach that man in his fallen state needs a Savior. Both teach self-salvation through works and higher wisdom. They also believe in reincarnation, though this is something they like to conceal from non-Jews.

We are not concerned here with Kabbalah per se, but with the disguised form which has permeated Western society through the wicked system of Freemasonry. Some of the most influential figures in Western culture over the past three hundred years or so were initiated into Freemasonry. Through this clever system of mind control, the masters of Kabbalah spread their pernicious philosophy among selected candidates who had little understanding of its real purpose.

Freemasonry is designed to undermine and destroy Christianity! Its members control the governments of the world, the banking system, the big corporations, the media, and most of the key institutions in science, medicine and education. They also have an iron grip over the military, the judiciary and law enforcement. It was only through this unseen influence that the Illuminati were able to shut down the entire world in March 2020.

They even boast that very soon “you will own nothing” because their secret plan entails the impoverishment of Western nations and the imposition of a totalitarian system of social control using modern technology.

The sceptics should examine the evidence

When we explain this to the sceptics, they laugh. It seems ridiculous to them. How could any group of people work in secret for so long, with such malign intent, and not be detected? But they have done so. Satan has made sure of that. They listened to his lies and adopted his methods. Those at the top of this nefarious hierarchy reaped staggering rewards, while their underlings swore an oath and, for a relative pittance, did as they were told.

All of these rebels are lost. Unless they repent, they are all eternally alienated from God! The fate that awaits them in death is too awful to contemplate.

To the sceptics we say ‘Look at the Columbus circles!’

And look at the evidence set out in our previous papers.

Weigh the facts for yourself and draw your own conclusions.

The people who serve Satan are leading mankind over a cliff. They expect those who survive to serve them and to bow before their false god, the Antichrist.

Why do the heathen rage and the people imagine a vain thing? Because they don’t understand, or refuse to acknowledge, that their infernal master was defeated on Calvary, that Jesus Christ triumphed over all the works of darkness, and that he will come again to rescue the righteous remnant among his chosen people:

“...they shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people: and they shall say, The LORD is my God.”
(Zechariah 13:9)

“Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.” (Jeremiah 29:12)

“Then shalt thou call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am.” (Isaiah 58:9)

“And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.” (Joel 2:32)

“For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee.” (Isaiah 30:19)
