

April 19th Yet Again: We are Witnessing the Phased Destruction of the United States

It takes a lot of planning to overthrow a country, especially one as large and as powerful as the United States. Confrontational Marxism, attacking from the outside, has its limitations but Alinsky-style Marxism – undermining and destabilizing a country from within – is working very nicely indeed. Several members of the current US administration, including Obama and Clinton, have studied this brand of Marxism.

In an earlier article (see website www.zephaniah.eu) I highlighted the role that April 19th has played at critical points in US history. It just keeps popping up. A prominent date in the annual Occult/Illuminati calendar, it marks the start of the 13-day period leading up to May 1st, which is a high sabbath for practitioners of the occult:

The date of the first shedding of blood in the war of Independence (Lexington, 1776)	19 April
The date the first country (Holland) officially recognised the US as a sovereign state (1782)	19 April
The date the first blood was shed in the most traumatic event in US history, the Civil War	19 April
The date its currency was utterly debased by taking it off the gold standard (1933)	19 April
The date it first sacrificed Christian children by immolation in fire (Waco, 1993)	19 April
The date it sacrificed Christian children by immolation in fire for the second time (Murrough building, Oklahoma, 1995)	19 April

Last year we saw how the Illuminati tried to start a major pandemic in Mexico and the US. However, the engineered swine flu virus did not have the intended effect and, even with a level-6 pandemic warning from the WHO, the tens of millions who were expected to take the vaccination, especially in the southern states, did not co-operate.

The first Mexican flu deaths were reported on 24 April 2009, which would indicate that, with an incubation period of 3-4 days, the lethal strain of the virus was released into the public domain around April 19th-20th. [It is important to note that, in the occult calendar, a significant date actually spans two days since the point of highest occult intensity is believed to occur at midnight rather than noon.]

This year, with the Gulf Oil Disaster, we are witnessing another phase in the destabilization of the US. Again it is aimed at the southern states. And again it started in that critical time period, April 19th-20th.

Look at the Pattern

Why the southern states? Well, when you look at the pattern, it ought to be obvious:

1. A major drug war in northern Mexico, in which thousands have been murdered, has continued unabated for many years. These drug gangs are heavily armed and have well-entrenched clandestine operations in several large cities in the southern US.
2. Unconstrained immigration across the Mexican border into the southern states has continued for many years, with the result that the proportion of Hispanics in these states, with no cultural affinity with the US, has swollen to critical levels. The new law on immigration recently enacted by the state of Arizona (which Obama is opposing) is too little too late.
3. California, an immensely wealthy state with a huge Hispanic population and a common border with Mexico, is on the brink of bankruptcy.
4. A fully fledged Marxist country lies just off the coast of Florida – remember Cuba? (The CIA claimed to have made several attempts since 1962 to overthrow Castro, but these are bogus. Had they really wanted him out of the way, he would have been gone long ago.)

5. The presence of several heavily armed guerrilla groups in Columbia and a well-funded anti-American Marxist-style regime in Venezuela.
6. The existence of sophisticated technology which can generate major hurricanes in the Gulf, or magnify existing ones. (As US Secretary for Defense, William Cohen, said at a conference on terrorism in April 1997, “Others are engaging even in an eco-type of terrorism whereby they can alter the climate [and] set off earthquakes [and] volcanoes remotely through the use of electromagnetic waves.”) Remember Katrina and the earthquake in Haiti – both in the Gulf-Caribbean area.

Another Deliberate Disaster

The latest disaster in the region, which occurred on 20th April, has been caused by an oil company which seems utterly unprepared to deal with the calamity it has unleashed. Independent experts and journalists are barred from entering the area. A brand of oil dispersant is being used which is known to be far more toxic than the alternative brands. Instead of using ‘oil sponge’ and other commercial products to soak up the oil, or calling in dozens of tankers already in the Gulf to suck the oil out of the water, BP is using a solvent which merely breaks the oil into smaller droplets which then sink below the surface. The contaminants remain in the Gulf, accumulating in massive plumes beneath the surface at the rate of one Exxon Valdez every 3-4 days. Seemingly Halliburton, with its long track record of corruption, was responsible for installing the technology which was meant to prevent a disaster of this kind. BP is exercising what amounts to an information black-out of the catastrophe and is even excluding legitimate environmental relief agencies and qualified scientists from any involvement. And the response by the Obama administration has been astonishingly cynical.

See a pattern?

This disaster was deliberate. And again we have that fateful date, April 19th/20th.

Take a look at two cards from the Illuminati Card Game (See images on the next page). The Texan ‘plains’ referred to in the left-hand card are described as ‘coastal’. We now know what lies hidden beneath these coastal plains – an unbelievable quantity of oil.

Illuminati Card Game predicts Gulf Oil Disaster

 Texas You wouldn't believe what's hidden in the miles and miles of Texas' plains. They're counting on that. You may place one Plot card (except a Goal) under Texas. It does not count against your limit, and cannot be exposed. You may use it at any time, but only for something involving Texas. You may switch it with another card, but only on your turn. If Texas is captured or destroyed, the Plot is lost. POWER Violent, Conservative Government RESISTANCE Huge, Coastal	 Multinational Oil Companies In a game with more than two players, when this group makes or aids an attack, you may designate one rival who cannot interfere. You may wait until that person tries to interfere before you say NO, but you cannot then change your mind. 6/4 Corporate RESISTANCE

Colossal ineptitude or official indifference?

With all the advanced technology available to the US military, it is inconceivable that it has no means of plugging a hole, or even a series of holes, 5000 feet beneath the sea. If this spill is allowed to continue, the impact on marine life in the Gulf will be catastrophic. Both the toxins released by the giant underwater plumes and the oxygen depletion caused by masses of oil-eating bacteria will wreak havoc on its delicate ecosystem. Furthermore, if the multiple plumes start to leak benzene gas then it may prove necessary to evacuate tens of thousands of vulnerable people from towns and cities around the Gulf.

The North Atlantic Conveyor

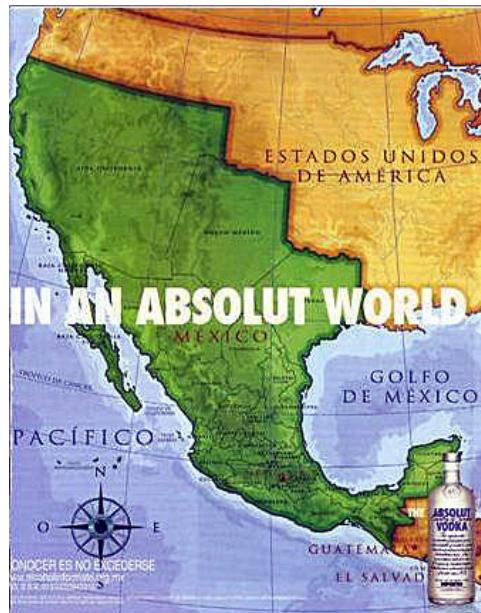

There is also a possibility that, if the relative density of the Gulf waters is disturbed, the natural cyclical conversion of cool deep-water currents into warm surface water may not occur. This in turn will reduce the amount of warm water entering the North Atlantic via the Gulf Stream. This works like a huge conveyor system, taking warm water from the Gulf and releasing a significant quantity of additional heat into the European weather system. This salt-rich water then cools in the north Atlantic near Iceland, sinks to a greater depth and returns to the Gulf underneath the incoming warm layer above – just like a conveyor belt. (Is it possible that the recent volcanic activity in Iceland is part of a plan to disrupt the Gulf Stream at both ends?)

Without this additional heat from the Gulf Stream, Europe, which is on the same latitude as Canada, would become considerably colder. This would result in food shortages from a reduced growing season and cause serious economic difficulties for many European countries.

In short, if this leak is not plugged soon, it will destroy the Gulf and have a permanent adverse effect on the world economy. What is more, it will impact heavily on the well-being of thousands of people and create immense anti-American feeling among Hispanic nations in the Gulf region.

The disaster fits comfortably with the Illuminati plan to break up the United States by, among other means, encouraging a massive influx of Mexicans into the southern states. The Illuminati would appear to be projecting exactly this outcome in the following Absolut ad:

Remember, the supreme prize for Marxists has always been the destruction of the United States. They have conspired for generations to bring this about and will almost certainly resort to the ultimate Marxist mechanism for achieving permanent political change – namely massive social upheaval – as soon as the various triggers and flashpoints have been put in place.

In his book, The Conspirators' Hierarchy (1994), John Coleman made the following prescient observation when summarizing the Illuminati plan:

“The United States will be flooded by peoples of an alien culture, who will eventually overwhelm white America; people with no concept of what the United States Constitution stands for; and who will, in consequence, do nothing to defend it, and in whose minds the concept of liberty and justice is so weak as to matter little. Food and shelter shall be their main concern.” (p.223)

Use the weapon that God has given you

Bible-believing Christians have an incredible weapon to defeat this evil, but they seem to be using it less and less. Preoccupied with self-fulfilment and life-enhancement, and coddled by an upbeat, feel-good gospel (which lacks the power of God), they are neglecting the one thing that makes any real difference in this world – prayer.

If enough Christians repent of their sinful past and turn to the LORD in prayer, true heartfelt prayer, then there is still a possibility that the Marxist-Illuminati plan can be delayed for a few more decades.

Christians of America, please start using this incredible weapon with more conviction and greater intensity than ever before!
