

Our Father Wants Us to Recognize His Creation!

by Jeremy James

We sometimes forget how we came to seek God, how we came to an understanding of His existence. As little children, we learned more and more every day about the world around us. As we got older, we grew to appreciate the unbelievable variety and complexity of creation, the astonishing beauty of the animal kingdom and all the works of nature. We knew intuitively from all this that creation had to have a Creator. It did not come into existence by itself!

Furthermore it operated in accordance with laws that were consistent, invariable and universal. There was no reason why these laws should exist at all, but they did. These, too, must have been planned by the Creator and embedded in His creation. Our knowledge of these laws and their scientific intricacy has advanced only a few steps over the past four thousand years. Such is their profundity.

The Word of God speaks of this when it refers to our inability to know – or ever know – how vegetation springs forth from the earth:

“And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground; And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.”

(Mark 4:26-27)

Satan hates this sense of wonder

Satan hates this sense of wonder. He knows it turns our eyes to God and puts within man a yearning to know Him.

Bolivian Salt Flats

The Apostle Paul says that the impact of creation on our mind and spirit is so powerful, and its effect so revealing, that we intuitively know that God made it, that God exists and that He is all-powerful. Those who deny thereafter that God exists are without an excuse. They know but they refuse to acknowledge the fact and prefer instead to live as they see fit:

“For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:”

(Romans 1:20)

There is no way the Enemy can hide creation from us. He can pack people into cities and pollute the skies above us, but we can still see very clearly the hand of God in all things. The Enemy is compelled, therefore, to adopt a different strategy in order to lessen the impact of creation on our mind and our understanding.

He does this in three ways:

1. He makes the world appear mechanical and atomistic, subject to deterministic laws which allegedly control the atoms and cause everything to operate like a huge machine. Science has been designed to teach this false method of perceiving creation and thereby lessen and, if possible, eliminate the need for a Creator.
2. He tries to hide the work of Creation in a huge, dark space, a vastness devoid of life or purpose. The earth and its wonders are reduced to a tiny spinning speck in this gigantic (“infinite”) cauldron of darkness. The majority of the stars are deemed to be so far away that it takes their light thousands of years to reach the earth.

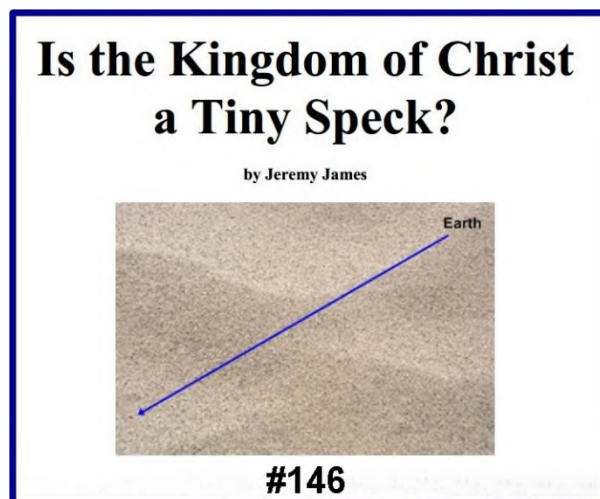

3. He greatly distorts the composition and structure of those parts of creation that we cannot inspect directly. The sun is turned into an object 93 million miles away and 333 thousand times larger than the mass of the earth (Note the Masonic number, 333). The moon in turn is treated as another spurious object, located about a quarter of a million miles from the earth and having a diameter about a quarter that of the earth. (This deception was greatly reinforced by the so-called “moon landings” in the period 1969 to 1972, a brazen hoax organized by NASA and the Masonic elite who control the US.) The same act of intentional distortion also applies to really small objects like “atoms” and “viruses”, whose existence and properties are decided exclusively by a group of self-appointed experts who hate God and reject His Word.

By using these three methods, Satan has mocked and blasphemed the work of Creation. He has made it seem that God was capable of giving life to only a tiny spinning speck, known as ‘planet’ earth, and leaving everything else in an abysmal, barren state of disarray. His NASA pals tell endless lies about ‘outer space’ and even claim there are ‘planets’ out there capable of supporting life. Meanwhile his Hollywood pals make endless movies and TV series to lend credibility to these lies. Along the way they throw in a few movies about imaginary giant lizards (called ‘dinosaurs’) which they claim lived millions of years ago. All garbage of course. No lie is too big. Just keep telling it and eventually the sleeping masses will believe it.

The teensy-weensy spinning speck

The sleeping masses among the professing Christian community accept nearly all of this. In fact, it is next to impossible to find a preacher who rejects the whole thing for what it is, a vast Satanic deception.

We have written a number of papers dealing with Satan’s false model of reality, the great cosmological lie. We have also been very critical of those pastors who teach Theistic Evolution, which is nothing but a pathetic attempt to reconcile Scripture with pseudo science. If readers have time to go back and read only one paper from our archive, we would suggest #146 – Is the Kingdom of Christ a Tiny Speck?

In his great mercy, God has given us the tools to check for ourselves the validity of many of the claims made by false science. The Internet has a treasure trove of information exposing the globe earth lie. We can travel 7 miles above the earth in a commercial airliner and, if our flight is in the daytime and in good weather, we will clearly see that the earth is flat. Cameras, like the Nikon P900, are now available that allow the stars to be photographed in remarkable detail. These photographs, taken with your own hand, will completely repudiate the fake, often childish, images released by NASA.

Heaven is His throne;
the earth is His footstool.

“Thus saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool:” (Isaiah 66:1)

“The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious.”
(Isaiah 60:13)

What God said He did

It is important that we understand what God Himself said about His own creation. The Word tells us that He takes pleasure in what He has created:

“Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.” (Revelation 4:11)

This verse tells us two things: (1) God created all things for His pleasure and (2) if they are pleasing to Him then they must be astounding in ways our little minds cannot understand. The Enemy tries to trivialize what God has done, to diminish His work in our eyes and hide from us the mindblowing extent to which creation gives Him glory.

We know this must be especially true when the LORD identifies Himself to us by referring to the work of His hands:

“Hearken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my called; I am he; I am the first, I also am the last. Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when I call unto them, they stand up together.”
(Isaiah 48:12-13)

And when men forget Him, He reminds them once again that He and only He made the heavens and the earth:

“And forgettest the LORD thy maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth...”
(Isaiah 51:13)

From the beginning of time, Satan and his fallen angels have tried to associate themselves with the work of creation, to imply that they had a role of some kind in its emergence and its expression in daily life. The heathen tried to appease the “gods” for this reason, to honor them with sacrifices and offerings in order to receive from them the fruits of creation. Here is what the LORD says about “the gods”:

“Thus shall ye say unto them, The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens. He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion.”

(Jeremiah 10:11-12)

This verse (10:11) happens to be highly unusual in that it was recorded, not in Hebrew, but in Aramaic. There are very few Aramaic verses in the Old Testament and only one in Jeremiah. It's as if God was making this statement, not only for the benefit of Israel, but as a warning to the whole heathen world. In the fullness of time the entire legions of fallen angels, the so-called “gods”, will perish from the earth.

The most fundamental act of creation is described as follows by the prophet Zechariah:

“The burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him.”

(Zechariah 12:1)

Note what He did. He “stretched forth” the heavens and He “laid” the foundation of the earth. In Biblical language, the heavens, with its multitude of stars, was stretched forth like a scroll, while the earth, massive and immovable, required a foundation to support it. This is just one of countless verses in the Bible which assert that the earth is stationary and flat and the sky or firmament above it is like a piece of parchment in which the stars are fixed.

Satan started to attack this Biblical truth in the 16th century. He figured that if he could distort this fundamental fact of creation, he could get mankind to believe all kinds of nonsense about cosmology. Once men started to lose sight of what God actually did and put a false cosmology in its place based on darkness, emptiness and life-denying futility, they would fall away from God. Most of Satan's version of ‘creation’ is a black hole, an idiotic mockery of what the LORD God brought into existence during the first days of Creation.

Can these movements be true? Of course not! It's all a lie.

[For a list of Bible verses which show that the earth is both flat and stationary, see Appendix A.]

If you are a Christian...

If you are a Christian and you accept Satan's version of cosmology, then you don't believe God's Word (though you may pretend that you do). There is a possibility, furthermore, that you don't really believe that God is who He says He is. You reject His claim to have created the heavens and the earth in the way that He described, even though the pleasure He took in their creation was intimately linked to their implied perfection.

Outer space is a Satanic lie. Anyone who is unable to see the massive contradiction between God's account of creation and the one invented by 'science' has clearly decided that, where cosmology is concerned, God's Word can be disregarded.

Is it wrong for Christians to do this? I believe it is. We are not dealing here with a matter of interpretation but a conscious decision, especially by pastors, to set aside the plain meaning of God's Word and substitute a meaning which curtails and demeans His sovereignty and His role as Creator. It diminishes greatly a God who could look upon His own handiwork and say, “And God saw everything that he had made, and, behold, it was very good.” (Genesis 1:31)

If 99.999 percent of what He created was a huge black hole, then how could He have said it was “very good”? Either God was exaggerating or Satan is lying.

Why is it that Christians can't see that Satan is lying?

How is it that 'science' falsely so-called has managed to bewitch so many?

CONCLUSION

The most wonderful name for God in the Bible is – Father!

Jesus asked that we address God in our prayers with the words, “Our Father”!

We are His sons and His daughters by adoption, an incredible relationship made possible only by the selfless work that Jesus did on our behalf on Calvary.

And if our Father says He made the heavens and the earth – and that He did so to such an awesome standard that He declared His work to be “very good” – then it is incumbent upon us as faithful sons and daughters to believe what He said.

And if we love Jesus and believe he is coming to the earth as Kings of kings, that he is the true legal owner of all creation, then we must see that his Father created a wonderful kingdom for him to rule over. He did not create a gigantic black hole in which His Son's kingdom was a miserable spinning speck stuck in a corner! He did not create millions of sterile rocks (or nuclear reactors! – what a joke) spread out in a frozen vastness extending for millions of 'light years' into infinity! The very notion is repulsive, a blasphemous mischaracterization of Our Father's infinite mercy and love and His unrestrained powers of Creation:

“Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off?”
(Jeremiah 23:23)

Millions of professing Christians today really need to wake up and take a hard look at their self-satisfied attitudes, at their willingness to compromise with the Great Blasphemer and to believe whatever lies the Satanic world system has devised to confuse them.

They need to abandon the idols of false science, the perverted cosmology of the Satanists, and return to their God. They need to acknowledge His own description of creation:

“...they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us:”
(Acts 17:27)

If Christians have difficulty getting past the false indoctrination of ‘outer space’ and the ‘spinning speck earth’, they should pray to our Father to open their understanding. Once they do this, and see what He actually created, they will be astounded.

They will see what Satan does not want them to see!

1. The foundations of the earth

"...for the pillars of the earth are the LORD'S, and he hath set the world upon them." – 1 Samuel 2:8.

"Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble."
– Job 9:6

"Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding." – Job 38:4.

"Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner stone thereof" – Job 38:6.

"The earth and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved: I bear up the pillars of it." – Psalm 75:3

"Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands." – Psalm 102:25.

"Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever."
– Psalm 104:5.

"The LORD by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens." – Proverbs 3:19.

"...for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake." – Isaiah 24:18

"Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?"
– Isaiah 40:21.

"Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when I call unto them, they stand up together."
– Isaiah 48:13.

"And forgettest the LORD thy maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth." – Isaiah 51:13.

"Thus saith the LORD, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name: If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever. Thus saith the LORD; If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the LORD."
– Jeremiah 31:35-37

"...the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth." – Zechariah 12:1.

"And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands." – Hebrews 1:10.

2. The waters above

"And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters." – Genesis 1:6

"And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so."
– Genesis 1:7

"He made darkness his secret place; his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies." – Psalm 18:11

"Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters" – Psalm 104:3

"Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens."
– Psalm 148:4

"Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?"
– Proverbs 30:4

[This is a reference to Christ in the Old Testament and his participation in the work of Creation. The "binding of the waters" would seem to refer to the firmament and its role in restraining the waters above.]

"When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens; and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures."
– Jeremiah 51:16

3. The waters below

"He hath compassed the waters with bounds, until the day and night come to an end." – Job 26:10

"Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea? or hast thou walked in the search of the depth?" – Job 38:16

"He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses." – Psalm 33:7

"When there were no depths, I was brought forth, when there were no fountains abounding with water." – Proverbs 8:24

"When he prepared the heavens, I was there: when he set a compass upon the face of the depth: When he established the clouds above: when he strengthened the fountains of the deep: When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth: Then I was by him, as one brought up with him: and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him; Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth; and my delights were with the sons of men." – Proverbs 8:27-31

"Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters." – Revelation 14:7

4. The firmament

"And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters." – Genesis 1:6

"And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so."
– Genesis 1:7

"And God called the firmament Heaven." – Genesis 1:8

"And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years: And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so... And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth" – Genesis 1:14-15, 17

"Is not God in the height of heaven? and behold the height of the stars, how high they are! And thou sayest, How doth God know? can he judge through the dark cloud? Thick clouds are a covering to him, that he seeth not; and he walketh in the circuit of heaven." – Job 22:12-14

[If we take circuit (chuwg) to mean compass or circle, then this passage may be referring to the circularity of the firmament.]

"Hast thou with him spread out the sky, which is strong, and as a molten looking glass?" – Job 37:18

"The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork." – Psalm 19:1

"Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters" – Psalm 104:3

"Praise ye the LORD. Praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power." – Psalm 150:1

"It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in." – Isaiah 40:22.

[The circle here is likely a reference to the vault above the earth. The inhabitants of the earth dwell beneath a great vault that stretches over them like a tent.]

"And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above. And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies. And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of great waters, as the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings. And there was a voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings. And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it."

– Ezekiel 1:22-26

"Then I looked, and, behold, in the firmament that was above the head of the cherubims there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne." – Ezekiel 10:1

"And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever."

– Daniel 12:3

5. The non-movement of the earth [except in judgment]

"Fear before him, all the earth: the world also shall be stable, that it be not moved." – 1 Chronicles 16:30.

"Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him. For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast."

– Psalm 33:8-9

[Barnes would translate verse 9 as follows: "For he spake, and it was; he commanded and it stood forth."]

"And he built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath established for ever." – Psalm 78:69.

[The word palaces does not appear in the Hebrew. The first part should probably read "And he built his sanctuary on high..." He also built it like the earth which he had established forever. The Hebrew word here for 'established' is yacad, meaning 'to lay a foundation.']

"The LORD reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the LORD is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself: the world also is stablished [yacad], that it cannot be moved." – Psalm 93:1

"Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever."
– Psalm 104:5.

[The original Hebrew word for removed in this verse is mowt, meaning (per Strong's H4131) "to slip, shake, fall" or, per Gesenius, "to totter, to shake".]

"Thy faithfulness is unto all generations: thou hast established the earth, and it abideth." – Psalm 119:90

[The original Hebrew word for abideth in this verse is amad, meaning (per Gesenius) "to stand firm, to remain, to endure".]

"Thus saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool:"
– Isaiah 66:1

"Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool." – Acts 7:49

[Since a throne remains in the same location, these last two verses show that the earth does not move. Also, as regards comparative size, the earth lies beneath the third heaven as a footstool lies beneath a throne. Therefore it cannot be a tiny speck in the vast depths of space as modern astronomy alleges.]

The earth moves only in times of judgment

"Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble."
– Job 9:6

"The LORD reigneth; let the people tremble: he sitteth between the cherubims; let the earth be moved." – Psalm 99:1

"And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth." – Isaiah 2:19 (and 2:21)

"Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger."
– Isaiah 13:13

"The earth is utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly. The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it; and it shall fall, and not rise again." – Isaiah 24:19-20

[The original Hebrew word for cottage in this verse is meluwnah, which can mean (per Gesenius) "a suspended bed" or hammock.]

6. The stretching-out of the heavens

"Which alone spreadeth out the heavens..." – Job 9:8

"He stretcheth out the north over the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing." – Job 26:7.

"Hast thou with him spread out the sky, which is strong, and as a molten looking glass?" – Job 37:18

"Bless the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honour and majesty. Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain." – Psalm 104:1-2.

"And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree." – Isaiah 34:4

"It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in." – Isaiah 40:22.

[The original Hebrew word for circle in this verse is chuwg, which Strong [H2329] defines as a "circle, circuit, compass". Elsewhere (22:18) Isaiah used the Hebrew word duwr to mean "ball" (sphere), so he is unlikely to be referring in this passage to a ball or sphere.]

"Thus saith God the LORD, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein:"
– Isaiah 42:5

[Both the heavens and the earth are "stretched out." According to Gesenius the original Hebrew word for "spread forth" in this verse – raqa – means "to spread out by beating." Elsewhere (34:4) the heavens are referred to as a scroll. In one case the action is akin to the unrolling of a parchment (and its subsequent rolling together), while in the other it is akin to the flattening out of a sheet of metal by hammering.]

"I am the LORD that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself" – Isaiah 44:24

"I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded." – Isaiah 45:12

"Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when I call unto them, they stand up together."
– Isaiah 48:13

"And forgettest the LORD thy maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth..." – Isaiah 51:13

"He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion."
– Jeremiah 10:12 (See also Jeremiah 51:15)

7. The flat, stretched-out earth

"Hast thou perceived the breadth (rachab) of the earth? declare if thou knowest it all." – Job 38:18

"He stretcheth out the north over the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing." – Job 26:7

"For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him. As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us." – Psalm 103:11-12

[This must refer to a flat earth, where east and west never meet.]

"To him that stretched out the earth above the waters: for his mercy endureth forever." – Psalm 136:6

"And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth." – Isaiah 11:12

"Thus saith God the LORD, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein:"
– Isaiah 42:5

"I am the LORD that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself" – Isaiah 44:24

"The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth" – Daniel 4:11

"Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them" – Matthew 4:8

"And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time." – Luke 4:5

"And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them." – Revelation 20:9

[Both the Hebrew word for "breadth" in Job 38:18 (rachab – Strong's 7338) and the Greek word for "breadth" in this verse (platos – Strong's 4114) mean breadth in exactly the same sense that we use the term today, similar to "width" and "broad place" (Strong). This indicates a flat surface, not a curved one.]

8. The movement of the sun

"Then spake Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon. And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day."

– Joshua 10:12-13

[Note that Joshua orders the sun and the moon to stand still, not the earth and the moon.]

"So let all thine enemies perish, O LORD: but let them that love him be as the sun when he goeth forth in his might." – Judges 5:31

"Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not; and seaeth up the stars."

– Job 9:7

[In this verse Job illustrates the awesome power of God by showing that He can cause the sun to stop moving and prevent the stars from giving their light.]

"The heavens declare the glory of God... In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun, which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race. His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof."

– Psalm 19:1, 4-6

"He appointed the moon for seasons: the sun knoweth his going down."

– Psalm 104:19

[The sun cannot reasonably be said to know its going down if it is not in real motion.]

"The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hastens to his place where he arose." – Ecclesiastes 1:5

"For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine." – Isaiah 13:10

[The prophet records that the sun and the moon stood still,
not the earth and the moon.]

"And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof."

– Revelation 21:23

10. The fixed stars and the "wandering" stars

"And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years: And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so. And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also. And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth. And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good." – Genesis 1:14-18

"They fought from heaven; the stars in their courses fought against Sisera."

– Judges 5:20

"Is not God in the height of heaven? and behold the height of the stars, how high they are! And thou sayest, How doth God know? can he judge through the dark cloud? Thick clouds are a covering to him, that he seeth not; and he walketh in the circuit of heaven." – Job 22:12-14

"The moon and stars to rule by night: for his mercy endureth for ever."

– Psalm 136:9

"He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names."

– Psalm 147:4

"For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine." – Isaiah 13:10

"Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever." – Jude 1:13

"And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise." – Revelation 8:14

"And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth" – Revelation 12:4

[These two verses refer to a third part of the stars. In the latter verse, they are generally understood to refer to the company of angels that rebelled. Stars and angels are so closely associated throughout God's Word that there may be some otherwise unexplained connection between them.]

11. Geocentric spatial relations

It is impossible to do justice to Biblical cosmology without taking into account the hundreds of passages throughout the Bible that are plainly geocentric and whose natural meanings imply a common frame of reference that embraces both heaven and earth. The billions of miles of space, which modern astronomers propose, are in sharp conflict with the spatial framework used in the Bible. The earth of the Bible is inconceivably larger than the sun in absolute terms. It is impossible to reconcile Biblical cosmology – how God describes His own Creation – with the bizarre 'cosmos' of modern astronomy, where the earth could not possibly be more pathetic or insignificant. Indeed, the more pronouncements that NASA and its allies make about the 'cosmos' the more stridently they contradict the Biblical account. It is always the same small pool of self-appointed 'experts' who make these outlandish declarations, with no hard evidence whatever to back them up.

Christians need to ask themselves why they believe the picture of heaven and earth portrayed by NASA, not simply because it conflicts with the Biblical narrative but because this secretive, Masonic organization continues to spew forth nonsensical pronouncements that mock God's Word. Do you seriously think the earth is in danger of being destroyed by a giant asteroid? Do you seriously believe the earth is spinning on its 'axis' at 1,000 miles an hour? Do you seriously believe there is 'intelligent life' in the 'depths' of space? Do you seriously believe that two men wearing only nylon pyjamas landed on the moon in an aluminum can in 1969? The ONLY evidence you have for any of this is the relentless propaganda engineered by NASA, aided and abetted by Hollywood, the big television corporations, and the mainstream media. Why are Christians willing to set aside God's Word and believe an alternative account of reality for which they possess not one shred of objective, verifiable evidence?

Ascending and descending

"And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded... Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech." – Genesis 11:5-7

"And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it." – Genesis 28:12

"Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended?" – Proverbs 30:4

"For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary; from heaven did the LORD behold the earth" – Psalm 102:19

"Bow thy heavens, O LORD, and come down: touch the mountains, and they shall smoke." – Psalm 144:5 [See also "He bowed the heavens also, and came down; and darkness was under his feet." – 2 Samuel 22:10]

[The LORD "bowed" [stretched out or bent (like a bow)] the heavens and "came down", an action that began in the third heaven and continued past the firmament to the mountains below.]

"Oh that thou wouldest rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that the mountains might flow down at thy presence." – Isaiah 64:1

"And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him." – Daniel 7:27

"For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth." – Micah 1:3

"And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven." – John 3:13.

"Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." – Acts 4:12

"But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God." – Acts 7:55-56

12. The impossibility of space travel

"Thus saith the LORD, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name: If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever. Thus saith the LORD; If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the LORD." – Jeremiah 31:35-37
