

Recent Still Images Depicting Man's Rebellion Against God

by Jeremy James

The Fall left man entirely to his own devices. While some of the earliest generations sought a way to become reconciled with the Father, most did not. The worst offenders in this latter group were those who actually hated God and wanted to establish a kingdom of their own on earth. They rejected completely the idea that God had any authority over them and refused to accept that they had sinned.

Satan worked closely with this group and organized them into a hierarchy which the Bible on two occasions called “the children of wickedness” (2 Samuel 7:10 and 1 Chronicles 17:9). In many of our papers we have referred to the top layers of this group as the Cabal, so for the sake of consistency we will continue to do so.

The Cabal used all their cunning before the Flood to corrupt those who wanted to be reconciled with God, whom the Bible called “the sons of God” (Genesis 6). These were the followers of Seth, the son of Adam and Eve (Adam was the first “son of God”). The Cabal lured them into idolatry, violence and depravity.

Their greatest success came via sexual seduction, where choice beauties were sent to beguile the righteous and bring them under their power. The same 'honey trap' approach was used much later at the foot of Peor in Moab, on the advice of Balaam, to lure the Israelites into idolatrous sexual relations with the Midianite women.

Sexual depravity and lustful excess are major weapons in the arsenal that Satan is using to lure more victims into his web. He deploys them over and over again because they are immensely effective. The minds of men are easily shackled by lustful thoughts and erotic fantasies. A great many Christian leaders today confess to being addicted to pornography, a habit which they seem unable to break without earnest assistance from fellow believers.

Satan's techniques

As dedicated servants of darkness, the Cabal makes extensive use of the wicked techniques that Satan has taught them from the earliest times. In this paper we will look at recent images that illustrate the results achieved to date using some of these techniques. In addition to sexual depravity (which we will not discuss any further since it is all too familiar), they include the use of war, violence, theft, lies, and blatant injustice to weaken and demoralize the nations.

The Cabal has the same goal today as it had before the Flood and during the Exodus, namely the complete destruction of the two sheep folds mentioned by Christ: "...And other sheep I have [i.e. the Church of born-again believers], which are not of this fold [i.e. the End Time remnant of Israel]: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice..." (John 10:16)

This brings us to our first image, the horrifying demolition of Gaza and the slaughter of its inhabitants:

Gaza: This photo was taken only a few days ago.

What does the Enemy achieve by doing this? How does Israel benefit from the slow, day-by-day demolition of a city with about two million inhabitants? For more than one and a half years this relentless onslaught has unfolded on our television screens. Every night viewers around the world are being shown fresh images of little children killed or maimed in these devastating raids, the massacre of entire families, and the brutal displacement and starvation of hundreds of thousands of civilians.

Advertising works

As the mega corporations will attest, advertising works. This is why they pay billions to promote their products. The nightly news broadcast is another form of advertising, especially if it returns again and again to the same subject. The corporate media is conditioning the public to believe – whether they want to or not – that Israel as a nation is a blight upon the earth, that it is utterly ruthless in pursuit of its objectives, and that it poses a threat to the rest of mankind.

The world is being prepared for the great wave of ‘antisemitism’ or Jew hatred that will characterize the End Time – “the time of Jacob’s trouble” (Jeremiah 30:7).

It never seems to occur to most people, including born-again Christians, that the Israeli cabinet is complicit in this campaign and that they are actively working for the New World Order. As servants of the Cabal they too are willing to destroy “the remnant of Israel” that will reject the Antichrist and accept Jesus:

“I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold:..” (Micah 2:12)

Some insightful comments

“The worldwide dispersal of the Jews today is part of God’s judgment of their continued and outspoken rejection of Christ. Jews living in Gentile lands are both a bane and a blessing. They contribute much to their adopted countries. However, once they begin to prosper and exert influence, they often become arrogant. They bring pressure to bear to secure their own interests and to get their own way, thereby sowing the seeds of their own destruction. Their actions can at times fuel the flames of antisemitism...

“Exiled from their own land, Jews carry with them not only their greatness, but also their grudges, especially against Christ. They are often active in groups that oppose prayer in schools, the display of nativity scenes, and the free expression of Christianity. The Jews in the United States frequently espouse causes that are far too liberal to gain the support of much of the population. Communism was born in the brain of an apostate Jew, and many early leaders of Bolshevism were Jewish.”

- John Phillips, Exploring the Minor Prophets, p.176, 1998

The Cabal is setting the stage for the coming international conflict. They are doing this, not just in Israel and the Middle East, but in many other places. These include the “flashpoints” that we discussed in our earlier paper #206.

The new administration in the US is now getting the EU to prepare for the coming conflict. The objectives outlined by Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth at the NATO meeting of Defense Ministers in Brussels on 12 February [see photo below] were intended to set this process in motion:

Following the usual commitment to work toward peace in the Ukraine, he said “any security guarantee must be backed by capable European and non-European troops.” These “peacekeepers” must be able to provide a “robust international oversight of the line of contact.”

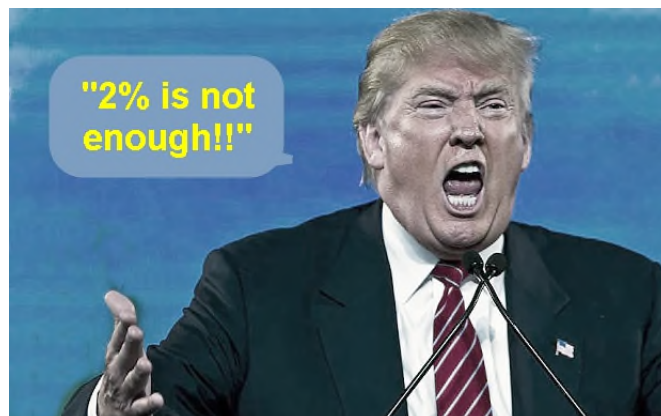

The real issue

He then got down to the real issue: “Safeguarding European security must be an imperative for European members of NATO. As part of this Europe must provide the overwhelming share of future lethal and nonlethal aid to Ukraine.”

He said this meant

- Donating more ammunition and equipment to the Ukraine.
- Expanding the EU’s defense industrial base.
- Informing citizens about the military threat facing Europe.

This involves “speaking frankly” to the citizens of the EU about this threat and getting them to understand that it can only be met by spending more on defense: “2% is not enough; President Trump has called for 5%, and I agree.”

He said that “stark strategic realities” will in future prevent the US from giving a high priority to the security of Europe. Why? Well, the stark reality he has in mind is Communist China which, according to Hegseth, has “the capability and intent to threaten our homeland and core national interests in the Indo-Pacific.”

The US wants the EU to support the Ukraine in its conflict with Russia, while the US will focus mainly on the military threat posed by China: “...we challenge your countries, and your citizens, to double down and re-commit yourselves not only to Ukraine's immediate security needs, but to Europe's long-term defense and deterrence goals.”

The complete text of Secretary Hegseth’s opening address is set out in Appendix A. Readers who wish to check the accuracy of our account may refer to it.

Hegseth's message was surprisingly blunt

Hegseth's message was surprisingly blunt. The US was ordering Europe to greatly increase its spending on defense and its military industrial base, to support the Ukraine in its conflict with Russia, and to persuade its citizens that the threat of war with Russia was real and needed to be taken very seriously. He even specified the percentage of GDP that Europe should be spending on defense! Despite his preliminary remarks about peace, he was clearly saying that war was inevitable and Europe must be prepared to pay the price in hard cash, human suffering, and lives lost.

The arrogance behind all of this is very disturbing. The war in the Ukraine is really a proxy war between the US and Russia. The US has decided to hand over this massive military project to the EU – thereby turning the EU into an active belligerent – and to bear the cost themselves. Incredibly, the EU Commission immediately set about doing exactly what the Trump administration had just ordered them to do. EU citizens are being told by their respective governments to “prepare” for a catastrophic event and to willingly allow a third party to ‘invest’ their “unused savings” – their personal property! – in military equipment to ensure that the spending target of 5 percent of GDP can be met. (We explained the background to this in #418.)

Why did the EU Commission do as they were told? Because the Cabal has an iron grip on both the US and Europe. The European Union, a federation of 27 countries, is not a democracy, though it operates an elaborate facade to make it appear democratic. A small group of ultra-rich families make all the decisions that matter, which are then given effect through laws and regulations drafted and approved by a team of politicians known as the EU Commissioners. These individuals have no mandate from the citizens of Europe but are appointed to this all-powerful office by Member State governments under instruction from the group of ultra-rich families. The EU Commission, which is led by 27 unelected ‘representatives’, is no different from the Politburo that controlled the USSR.

In order to appreciate the magnitude of the additional defense spending that the Cabal is demanding – an increase from 2 percent to 5 percent of GDP – it may help to compare it with the existing level of expenditure across the EU on hospital services (3.2 percent), unemployment (3.9 percent), transport infrastructure (2.5 percent), or family support and child benefits (1.9%). Given the difficult economic conditions that currently prevail across Europe, which will be further exacerbated by the international trade war, the planned increase in defense spending is both oppressive and untenable.

Military spending worldwide has grown by 37% in ten years

The Cabal is instructing all countries to greatly expand their spending on military activities. A recent report by the Stockholm International Peace Research Institute revealed that military expenditure across all countries increased by an incredible $2.7 trillion in 2024. In fact, military spending worldwide has increased every year for the past 10 years, growing by 37 percent between 2015 and 2024. This is convincing evidence that a major international war is planned.

This brings us to our next exhibit, a photo of the coffins of those slaughtered in a so-called ‘terrorist’ attack in Kashmir on 22 April:

We are asked to believe that this was carried out by a radical Islamic group based in Pakistan. There is little evidence to support this. The attack would appear instead to be a deliberate attempt to provoke a sharp escalation in the long-running tensions between Pakistan and India. The Cabal is now activating the Kashmiri flashpoint (see #206) and using it as an excuse to start a major war in the region. Over the space of only two weeks, the death of 26 innocent civilians is being cited by both sides, India and Pakistan, as possible grounds for waging a long and bloody war and even deploying deadly nuclear devices! This is not the language of diplomacy but the scripted rhetoric of players following another agenda.

The manipulation of public perception

The manipulation of public perception is central to the schemes being hatched by the Cabal. They know the average person will gravitate toward a “good guy” and put some credence in much of what he says. The urge to find an honest broker is universal, a person we can trust. So the Cabal fills the media with these people, tailoring their ‘message’ to win public confidence and squeeze out genuine honest brokers. Robert Kennedy Jr is a good example of this. Before the formation of the new administration in the US he was seen by many as a genuine spokesman on health matters and a staunch opponent of big pharma. However, after his appointment as Health Secretary, he has shifted his ground considerably, so much in fact that even his most ardent supporters can see that they were duped.

This brings us to the phony champions of democracy on the European stage, the ones who profess to stand with the common people. Foremost among these are Alice Wiedel, leader of the AfD parliamentary alliance in Germany, and Victor Orban, the prime minister of Hungary. The AfD has proven so popular with the electorate that the authorities want it banned as a threat to democracy in Germany, while Orban is known for his outspoken opposition to the provision of military aid to the Ukraine or its admission to membership of the European Union.

If Freemasonry in Europe is controlled by the Cabal, then why have these so-called “good guys” joined their ranks? –

EXHIBIT 4

Alice Weidel and Victor Orban, 2025

Weidel, who is almost certainly a transgender, is making the well-known 'Entered Apprentice' Masonic handshake with Orban.

This 'grip' has been photographed time and again among world leaders and influential power brokers. It is made by pressing the top of the thumb on the base knuckle of the other person's index finger. As such it resembles a regular handshake but with a very distinctive thumb placement by both parties. It is also maintained for longer than a regular handshake in order to emphasize their mutual 'brotherhood'.

In former times the 'grip' was often concealed from outsiders by shielding it with the free hand of one of the parties. Today the Cabal appear to have dispensed with this precaution, perhaps as a way of emphasising the 'grip' that they now exercise over the whole of mankind.

The Freemasonic network controls all political systems

The new Pope, Robert Prevost from Chicago, who wants to be known as Leo XIV, is part of the same propaganda machine, as the following photos show:

As an Augustinian priest meeting Pope John Paul II

As an Augustinian priest meeting Pope Benedict XVI

As a cardinal meeting a senior cleric in Peru

As a cardinal meeting the outgoing Taiwanese ambassador to the Vatican in 2023

We could give many similar examples. Here are just a few:

President Trump meeting Kim Jong Un, the leader of North Korea.

President Trump meeting Chinese premier, Xi Jinping in 2019.

President Trump meeting Russian president, Vladimir Putin in 2018.

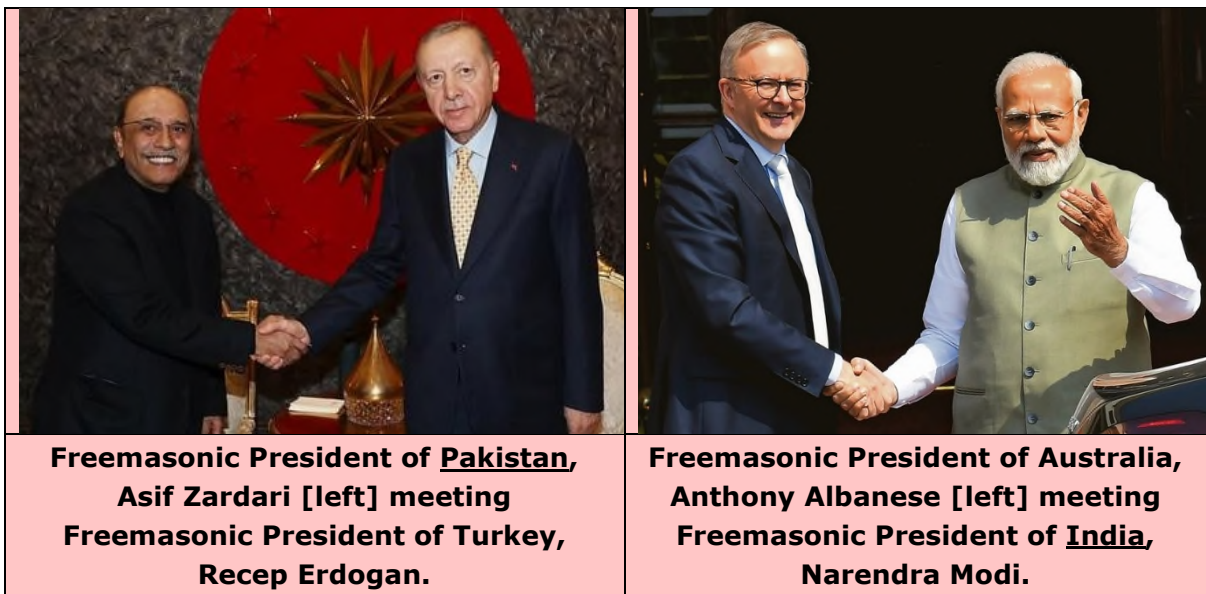

Trump, Putin, Xi Jinping, Kim Jong Un, the Pope, and all the rest are on the same team. They are all high-ranking Freemasons working for the New World Order Cabal. If you check online you should be able to find plenty of evidence to show that all world leaders make the 'grip' (known as Boaz) to advertise their allegiance to the god of this world.

On the very first day they enter the Lodge and become an Entered Apprentice, Freemasons take a binding oath of obedience to the 'Worshipful Master' whom they understand to be the head of the Lodge. Each of these in turn have taken a similar oath, all the way to the top of the Masonic hierarchy. The grand commander at the apex of this pyramid, whom every Freemason has vowed to obey (whether wittingly or unwittingly), is Satan himself.

The Great Seal on the US dollar bill showing the All-Seeing Eye of Lucifer on top of the Masonic pyramid.

The high voltage tension between India and Pakistan is presented in the media as a product of irreconcilable differences and religious enmity between the two countries, one Hindu and the other Muslim. If so, then they could not possibly have been complicit in the false flag attack in Kashmir on 22 April. However, when we realize that their respective leaders are on the same team, the deception begins to make sense.

We now come to the arrogance of these people, the incredible contempt they sometimes show for the rest of humanity. This attitude is easier to understand when you realize that, to the Cabal, the rest of mankind are animals, a herd of bipeds without a soul. When they are performing on the world stage, they act out whatever role has been assigned to them and do as little as possible to expose their true inner disposition. However, every now and then they step over the line. Good examples of this are men like Bill Gates and Klaus Schwab. Donald Trump is also very arrogant, but in a clownish way. This tends to disguise the venomous depth of his narcissism.

He recently issued a tweet on his main social platform which was so egotistical, so bizarre, and so lacking in respect and common decency, that many Americans must be wondering whether he might be unstable. Bear in mind that this issued only 12 days after the death of Pope Francis:

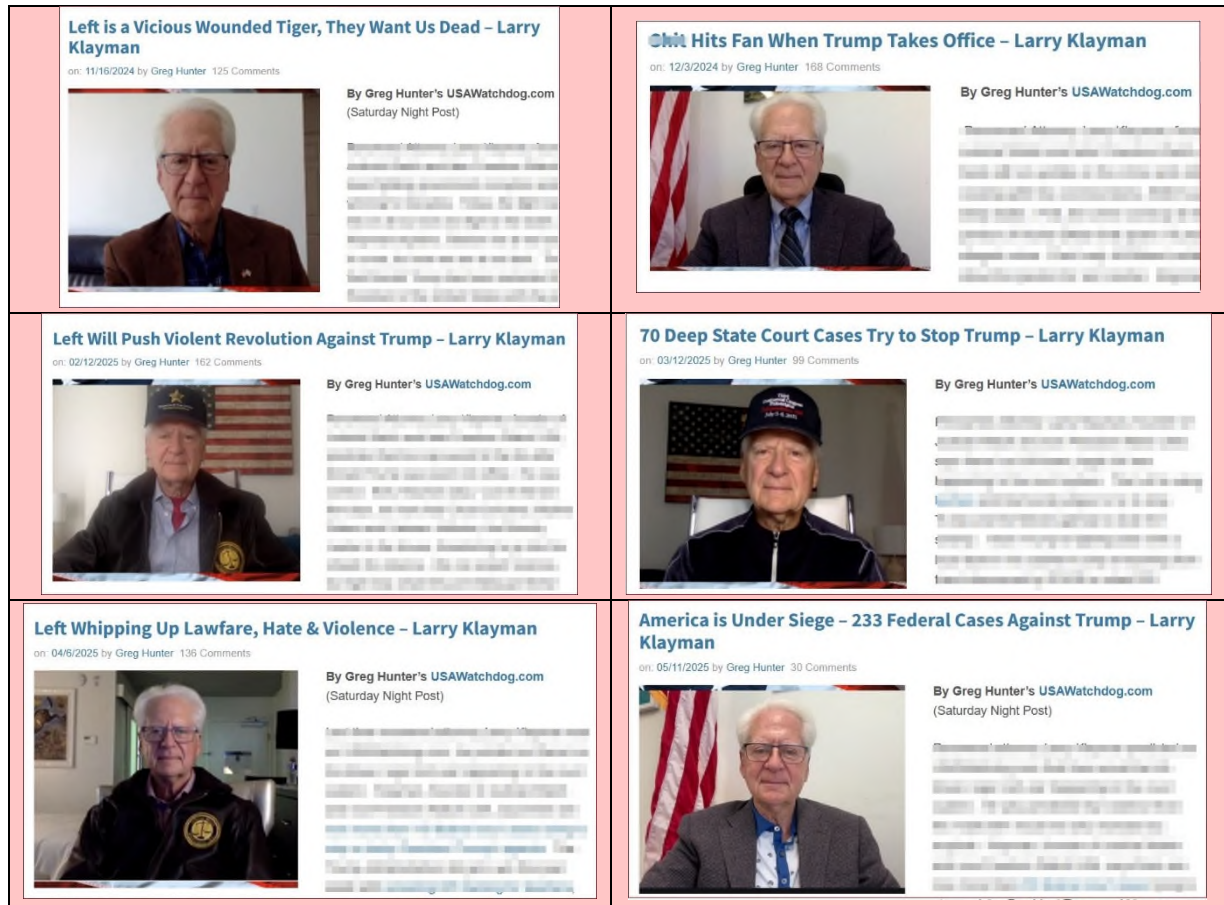

EXHIBIT 5

He is making what many interpret as a Masonic hand sign that says, in effect, All is as it should be; we're in control.

Our next exhibit is a montage of photos of Larry Klayman which were posted online by USAWatchdog.com with each of his last six appearances on that show. The show is hosted by Greg Hunter, the ultimate “good guy”:

EXHIBIT 6

Larry Klayman is a well-known and somewhat controversial attorney and former federal prosecutor. He does not appear to enjoy much of a reputation among the power elite in Washington and yet his profile never seems to flag. The guests featured on the show all seem to fit a certain mould – patriotic truthers with inside information – and are very probably invited to provide an approved counter-message to the one being touted by the government.

Mr Klayman has appeared on the weekly show six times in six months. His central theme is quite simple: The Left in America is out of control and posing a real threat to democracy. This is especially true of the judiciary. Their influence is growing and they are seriously obstructing the work of President Trump. Before long it will be necessary to remove them, along with the slew of 'deep state' actors who support them. This can only be done, he says, by temporarily suspending the Constitution. The same approach will be needed to deal with the millions of illegal immigrants across America. The constitutional right known as habeas corpus will have to be suspended for a time so that these 'invaders' can be expelled without the massive delays that would be caused by due process and a left-leaning judiciary.

The Brutus Option

Mr Klayman is actually endorsing the ‘solution’ that we warned about in our paper #415, America in Crisis, as well as in several earlier papers. This is the Brutus Option, where the American electorate vote to grant special powers to the President, over and above those set out in the Constitution. When they do, they discover to their horror that the man they trusted, Thomas Brutus, was really a deep state agent. Brutus proceeds to use his ultra-constitutional powers to arrest, imprison and execute everyone who opposes, or is likely to oppose, his totalitarian rule. Both Congress and the Supreme Court are dissolved. The Republic has ended and a communist tyranny has taken over.

We know the White House is already looking at ways to suspend habeas corpus in order to deal with the migrant crisis. Stephen Miller, Deputy Chief of Staff at the White House, stated as much on 9 May. As Fox News reported:

President Trump’s top policy advisor, Stephen Miller said outside the White House on Friday that the Trump administration was “actively looking at” suspending habeas corpus, the constitutional right for people to legally challenge their detention by the government. This would serve as a way for the administration to expand its legal power to deport people who are in the US illegally.

CONCLUSION

So far we have looked at six exhibits that show how far man’s rebellion against God has progressed. The Cabal are using war, propaganda, fiscal attrition, secret control networks, intimidation, terrorism and a variety of other means, including the erosion of basic civil rights, to force the US and all nations to accept a totalitarian world government. This, they believe, will hasten the rise of the Antichrist.

The genocidal mentality behind this program ought to be evident from the exhibits we have discussed so far, but there is one final exhibit which shows beyond all doubt that mass murder, albeit of a non-military kind, will figure prominently in their coming worldwide operations:

EXHIBIT 7

PPP's Goh Meng Seng on compulsory vaccinations: 'We should not be treated as pigs or chicken'

Singapore, 27 April, 2025

<https://www.asiaone.com/singapore/ppps-goh-meng-seng-compulsory-vaccinations-we-should-not-be-treated-pigs-or-chicken>

When the leader of a political party in a thriving democratic metropolis has to publicly call on the government to stop injecting its citizens like livestock, we know a defining moment has been reached, not just in the city in question (Singapore) but in the world as a whole.

The leader, Goh Meng Seng, is referring to the legislative power exercised by the government of Singapore which, in amendments to a law of 1976, permit the state to (a) require that all citizens receive a government-approved vaccine during the outbreak of an infectious disease; (b) that anyone who refuses to do so be subjected to criminal penalties; (c) that these penalties, on the first offense, include a fine of up to $10,000 or a term of imprisonment of up to 6 months; and (d) that no state officials, medical personnel, or even police officers, can be held liable for any harm that may result. (We set out the actual legislative provisions in Appendix B attached.)

Note in particular the reference to police officers. Real physical force may be used to compel anyone who fails to co-operate.

In an earlier paper (#396) we showed how New Zealand intends to go down the same road. We have no doubt that other countries are planning to introduce similar legislation:

New Zealand to Allow Forced Vaccinations with Police Assistance

by Jeremy James

#396

Mandatory vaccination is the ideal way to subject the entire world to the coercive control that nanoscale technology provides. Many researchers have shown that the Covid vaccines contained self-assembling material similar to that used in nanobots, namely exceedingly small devices that respond to external electromagnetic signals. These are known to have the ability to influence human behavior and emotional states in a variety of ways.

Of equal concern is the projected future development of a wide range of vaccines based on mRNA technology. Recent studies have shown that this technology can have long-term deleterious health effects, including reduced immune function, inflammation of the heart tissue, and reduced fertility. Should a ruling regime wish to inflict further harm on the population, up to and including genocide, it will have the statutory power to do so.

Our body is a temple of the Holy Spirit

The Word of God teaches that our physical body is a temple of the Holy Spirit. It is wrong to harm it, abuse it, or defile it in any way. Given that the Covid vaccines were based on an entirely new, untested technology, it was a grave sin for any Christian to have allowed this unknown substance to be injected into their body. The same may be said of any vaccine based on mRNA technology:

“Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.” (1 Corinthians 3:16-17)

Consider well the verses that come immediately after the ones just cited:

“Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness. And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain. Therefore let no man glory in men...”

The vaccine industry, with its secrecy, its pharmakeia, and its blatantly unscientific methodology, is “the wisdom of this world” writ large. It is owned and controlled by the Cabal. And our laws are being twisted and bent to enable them to mandatorily inject whomever they please.

There is every reason to believe that this sinister industry will be a major contributor to the End Time death toll.

The technology behind the Apocalypse will not appear from nowhere. Some it is already in plain view, while the rest, no doubt, has already been fully or partly developed and tested in secret laboratories and locations.

We should not let any of this disturb us. The LORD God Almighty is sovereign and will do all that He said He will do. He will keep all of His promises. The Children of Wickedness, every last one of them, will be destroyed by His Son when he returns. The Lord Jesus will carry out this solemn task with zeal and great fury:

“Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst thresh the heathen in anger. Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah.”

– Habakkuk 3:12-13

Opening Remarks by Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth at Ukraine Defense Contact Group (As Delivered)

Feb. 12, 2025 Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth, Brussels, Belgium

Good afternoon, friends.

Thank you, Secretary Healy for your leadership, both in hosting and now leading the UDCG.

This is my first Ukraine Defense Contact Group. And I'm honored to join all of you today.

And I appreciate the opportunity to share President Trump's approach to the war in Ukraine.

We are at, as you said Mr. Secretary, a critical moment. As the war approaches its third anniversary, our message is clear: The bloodshed must stop. And this war must end.

President Trump has been clear with the American people – and with many of your leaders – that stopping the fighting and reaching an enduring peace is a top priority.

He intends to end this war by diplomacy and bringing both Russia and Ukraine to the table. And the U.S. Department of Defense will help achieve this goal.

We will only end this devastating war – and establish a durable peace – by coupling allied strength with a realistic assessment of the battlefield.

We want, like you, a sovereign and prosperous Ukraine. But we must start by recognizing that returning to Ukraine's pre-2014 borders is an unrealistic objective.

Chasing this illusionary goal will only prolong the war and cause more suffering.

A durable peace for Ukraine must include robust security guarantees to ensure that the war will not begin again.

This must not be Minsk 3.0.

That said, the United States does not believe that NATO membership for Ukraine is a realistic outcome of a negotiated settlement.

Instead any security guarantee must be backed by capable European and non-European troops.

If these troops are deployed as peacekeepers to Ukraine at any point, they should be deployed as part of a non-NATO mission. And they should not be covered under Article 5. There also must be robust international oversight of the line of contact.

To be clear, as part of any security guarantee, there will not be U.S. troops deployed to Ukraine.

To further enable effective diplomacy and drive down energy prices that fund the Russian war machine, President Trump is unleashing American energy production and encouraging other nations to do the same. Lower energy prices coupled with more effective enforcement of energy sanctions will help bring Russia to the table.

Safeguarding European security must be an imperative for European members of NATO. As part of this Europe must provide the overwhelming share of future lethal and nonlethal aid to Ukraine.

Members of this Contact Group must meet the moment.

This means: Donating more ammunition and equipment. Leveraging comparative advantages. Expanding your defense industrial base. And importantly, leveling with your citizens about the threat facing Europe.

Part of this is speaking frankly with your people about how this threat can only be met by spending more on defense.

2% is not enough; President Trump has called for 5%, and I agree.

Increasing your commitment to your own security is a down payment for the future. A down payment as you said Mr. Secretary of peace through strength.

We're also here today to directly and unambiguously express that stark strategic realities prevent the United States of America from being primarily focused on the security of Europe.

The United States faces consequential threats to our homeland. We must – and we are – focusing on security of our own borders.

We also face a peer competitor in the Communist Chinese with the capability and intent to threaten our homeland and core national interests in the Indo-Pacific. The U.S. is prioritizing deterring war with China in the Pacific, recognizing the reality of scarcity, and making the resourcing tradeoffs to ensure deterrence does not fail.

Deterrence cannot fail, for all of our sakes.

As the United States prioritizes its attention to these threats, European allies must lead from the front.

Together, we can establish a division of labor that maximizes our comparative advantages in Europe and Pacific respectively.

In my first weeks as Secretary of Defense, under President Trump's leadership, we've seen promising signs that Europe sees this threat, understands what needs to be done, and is stepping up to the task.

For example, Sweden recently announced its largest ever assistance package. We applaud them for committing $1.2 billion in ammunition and other needed materiel.

Poland is spending 5% of GDP on defense already, which is a model for the continent.

And 14 countries are co-leading Capability Coalitions. These groups are doing great work to coordinate Europe's contributions of lethal assistance across eight key capability areas.

These are first steps. More must still be done.

We ask each of your countries to step up on fulfilling the commitments that you have made.

And we challenge your countries, and your citizens, to double down and re-commit yourselves not only to Ukraine's immediate security needs, but to Europe's long-term defense and deterrence goals.

Our transatlantic alliance has endured for decades. And we fully expect that it will be sustained for generations to come. But this won't just happen.

It will require our European allies to step into the arena and take ownership of conventional security on the continent.

The United States remains committed to the NATO alliance and to the defense partnership with Europe. Full stop.

But the United States will no longer tolerate an imbalanced relationship which encourages dependency. Rather, our relationship will prioritize empowering Europe to own responsibility for its own security.

Honesty will be our policy going forward – but only in the spirit of solidarity.

President Trump looks forward to working together, to continuing this frank discussion amongst friends, and to achieving peace through strength – together.

Thank you.

APPENDIX B

THE STATUTES OF THE REPUBLIC OF SINGAPORE

INFECTIOUS DISEASES ACT 1976

Power to order certain persons to undergo vaccination or other prophylaxis

47.—(1) In an outbreak or a suspected outbreak of any infectious disease in any area in Singapore, the Director-General of Health may by order direct any person or class of persons not protected or vaccinated against the disease to undergo vaccination or other prophylaxis within the period specified in the order.

[10/2008; 5/2019]

[Act 11 of 2023 wef 01/05/2023]

(2) In addition to the power conferred by subsection (1), where it appears to the Director-General of Health that —

- (a) an outbreak of an infectious disease in any area in Singapore is imminent; and
- (b) it is necessary or expedient to do so for the securing of public safety, the Director-General of Health may by order direct any person or class of persons not protected or vaccinated against that infectious disease to undergo vaccination or other prophylaxis within the period specified in the order.

[10/2008; 5/2019]

[Act 11 of 2023 wef 01/05/2023]

General penalties

65. Any person guilty of an offence under this Act for which no penalty is expressly provided shall —

- (a) in the case of a first offence, be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both; and
- (b) in the case of a second or subsequent offence, be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

Protection from personal liability

67. No liability shall lie personally against the Director-General of Health, the Director-General of Public Health, the Director-General, Food Administration or any Health Officer, adjunct Health Officer, Port Health Officer or police officer who, acting in good faith and with reasonable care, does or omits to do anything in the execution or purported execution of this Act.
